COURSE DELIVERY INFORMATION

The class will be delivered in an online format. Synchronous lectures will take place during the registrar-scheduled class time Tuesday/Thursday 12:30- 1:45, with tutorial sessions also occurring during scheduled times.

PREREQUISITE(S)

None

COURSE INFORMATION

The course examines philosophical views surrounding love, sex, and death, and how these concepts influence our lives. We will examine the nature of marriage and its historical development, and some literature around metaphysical and ethical issues of erotic love and sex. As well as issues like gender, sexual identity, sexual orientation and rape.

In the second part of the course, we will turn to the issue of death. We will start by examining the basic definitions of death and personhood, followed by discussion surrounding the question of whether death is bad for the one who dies. Finally, we will end by looking at some ethical issues surrounding death, including killing, euthanasia, suicide and abortion.

COURSE OBJECTIVES/LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Introduce students to the tools and techniques of western philosophy
- Familiarize students with philosophical issues in a variety of areas
- Introduce students to different methods and approaches of philosophical analysis

REQUIRED/RECOMMENDED TEXTBOOKS, READINGS AND MATERIALS

Texts will be made available online

COURSE ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION

Weight	Assignment
25%	Paper 1
30%	Midterm Exam
25%	Paper 2
10%	Final Exam
10%	Tutorial

Term Papers:

The papers will be 2,000-2,200 words in length (8-10 pages in 12 pt font double spaced), with at least two sources from the philosophical literature. I will post topics to D2L as guides.

Exams:

The exams will be online essay exams. I will post a list of potential questions in advance and then select a subset for the test. The answers will be in the form of short (300-400 word) essays on the readings covered in the class.

Tutorial:

The tutorial grade is based on preparation for and participation in the discussion sections over the course of the term. This will include participation in synchronous online meetings as well as on a D2L discussion board for the class.

Important Dates:

Midterm exam – Friday, October 16
First Term Paper – Friday October 23
Second Term Paper – Friday December 4
Final Exam – Monday December 7

Please Note:

To pass this course, you must complete all assignments. Assignments are to be submitted at the beginning of class. Late work may be penalized, depending on the nature of the delay. Late assignments can be submitted by email but will not receive comments.

There will NOT be a Registrar-scheduled final exam.

Writing and the grading thereof is a factor in the evaluation of your work for this course. For further explanation, see the University Calendar at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>

IMPORTANT DEPARTMENTAL, FACULTY AND UNIVERSITY INFORMATIONAcademic Accommodations

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures. The student accommodation policy can be found at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities.pdf. Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a protected ground other than disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their instructor.

Absence or Missed Course Assessments

Students who are absent from class assessments (tests, participation activities, or other assignments) should inform their instructors as soon as possible. If the reason provided for the absence is acceptable, instructors may decide that any arrangements made can take forms other than make-up tests or assignments. For example, the weight of a missed grade may be added to another assignment or test.

Academic Advising

If you are a student in the Faculty of Arts, you can speak to an academic advisor in the Arts Students' Centre about course planning, course selection, registration, program progression and more. Visit the Faculty of Arts website at arts.ucalgary.ca/advising for contact details and information regarding common academic concerns.

For questions specific to the philosophy program, please visit phil.ucalgary.ca. Further academic guidance is available by contacting David Dick (Undergraduate Program Director dgdick@ucalgary.ca) or Jeremy Fantl (Honours Advisor jfantl@ucalgary.ca). If you have questions regarding registration, please email Rebecca Lesser (Undergraduate Program Administrator phildept@ucalgary.ca).

Writing Assessment and Support

The assessment of all written assignments—and, to a lesser extent, written exam responses—is based in part on writing skills. This includes correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.), as well as general clarity and organization. Research papers must include a thorough and accurate citation of sources. Students are also encouraged to use Writing Support Services for assistance. For more information, and other services offered by the Student Success Centre, please visit ucalgary.ca/ssc.

Required Technology

In order to successfully engage in their learning experiences at the University of Calgary, students taking online, remote and blended courses are required to have reliable access to the following technology:

- A computer with a supported operating system, as well as the latest security, and malware updates;
- A current and updated web browser;
- Webcam (built-in or external);
- Microphone and speaker (built-in or external), or headset with microphone;
- Current antivirus and/or firewall software enabled;
- Broadband internet connection.

Most current laptops will have a built-in webcam, speaker and microphone.

Responsible Use of D2L
