REQUIRED TEXT

Biomedical Ethics: A Canadian Focus, Johanna Fisher (ed.) Oxford University Press (any edition)

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

This course is an introduction to Bioethics – the study of ethical issues related to health care. We will examine a number of specific issues including abortion, euthanasia and physician assisted suicide, experimentation on human subjects, and models of the physician/patient relationship. All of these concerns are highly contentious and are debated in both academic and non-academic arenas. The general aim of the course is to equip students with the analytical tools to clarify the moral dimensions of these issues with a view to assessing their moral status in an informed and judicious manner. Writing and the grading thereof is a factor in the evaluation of your work for this course.

COURSE WORK AND EVALUATION

The course work will consist of two in-class exams, a quiz, and a term paper (4-6 pages). There will be no Registrar-scheduled final exam. A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not essential to pass the course as a whole. The weight for each requirement is as follows:

Item	% of Course Grade	Date
Exam 1	30	October 15
Exam 2	30	November 12
Quiz	10	December 3
Paper	30	December 3

ASSIGNMENT OF LETTER GRADES:

Letter grades will be assigned in accordance with the following scale:

0-45	F	56-60	C-	71-75	B-	86-90	A-
46-50	D	61-65	C	76-80	B	91-95	A
51-55	D+	66-70	C+	81-85	B+	96-100	A+

COURSE POLICIES

I expect that the course will proceed in accordance with the course schedule. However, unforeseen contingencies, e.g., particular difficulty or ease with a section of the course, may necessitate changes in the content covered on the dates listed on the schedule.

Attendance

Attendance is not mandatory, but I do expect you to make every effort to be present at each session. Excepting extraordinary circumstances, I expect advance notice that you will be unable to attend class for an exam or to submit an assignment by the due date.

How to Contact Me

You can see me during my office hours or make an appointment to see me at some other time. If you wish to make an appointment, please contact me directly by telephone or E-mail. Perhaps the best way to reach me is through E-mail, which I typically check a number of times each day. I should also mention that I encourage you to offer me feedback about any aspect of the course – it is important for me to know how you think things are going, and to be flexible enough to adjust to your needs.

Missed and Late Course Work

Medical or other formal documentation will be required for a missed exam. Without suitable documentation, you will not be permitted to re-schedule the exam, and you will receive a grade of zero. Late take-home finals will lose 25% of their value each day (or portion of the day) that they are late unless accompanied by medical or other documentation. After four days, late take-homes without documentation will not be accepted and you will receive a score of zero.

Academic Honesty

Cheating or plagiarism on any assignment or examination is regarded as an extremely serious academic offence, the penalty for which may be an F on the assignment, an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw from the University. See the relevant sections on 'Academic Misconduct' in the current University Calendar. Intellectual honesty requires that your work include adequate referencing to sources. Plagiarism occurs when you do not acknowledge or correctly reference your sources. If you have questions about correct referencing, consult your instructor.

Academic Accommodation

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodation. If you are a student with a permanent disability or temporary impairment who may require academic accommodation, you must first register with the Student Accessibility Resource Office located in MacEwan Student Centre 452; phone 403-220-8237; email access@ucalgary.ca.
