Prerequisites:

There are no prerequisites for this course.

Course description:

The course examines a variety of moral problems facing contemporary society. Topics to be discussed include sexual ethics, pornography, abortion, world poverty, capital punishment, physician-assisted death, performance-enhancing drugs, animal rights, and environmental responsibility.

Course Objectives:

- Broad knowledge of diverse philosophical issues, problems, traditions, and views in applied ethics;
- Ability to critically digest, interpret, and analyze complex sources;
- Ability to write a convincing argument that takes adequate account of alternative positions;
- Ability to engage in constructive, respectful, oral and written argumentation.

Texts:

- 1) Readings will be made available through Library e-journals and will be posted on D2L (respectful of copyright).

Course Assessment:

There are five discussion board posts, a paper proposal, a term paper, and a take-home final exam. Writing and the grading thereof is a factor in the evaluation of your work for this course. For further explanation, see the University Calendar at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/e-2.html>. There will NOT be a Registrar-scheduled final exam.

Weight	Assignment	Due dates
25%	Discussion Board Posts	Ongoing
15%	Paper Proposal	October 14 th
30%	Paper	November 14 th
30%	Take-home Final	December 7th-11th

Assignments are to be submitted on D2L. Late work will be penalized 3.3 points per day (the equivalent to one letter-grade step) unless there is a documented excuse such as illness or family emergency. A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a pass in the course as a whole.

Triweekly Discussion Board Posts (5 x 5% = 25%)

Triweekly, students will be given a discussion question related to the weekly topic and will be required to write a brief commentary, as well as provide a response to the post of another student. Comments must be a minimum of 250 words, and responses must be a minimum 100 words. Your original post will count for 80% of your grade each discussion board assignment and your response post will account for the remaining 20%.

Paper Proposal (15%)

Your proposal must include a focused thesis statement, a detailed proposal outlining the project and how you intend to complete it, at least two bibliographical entries (one being an assigned reading, the other being a academic source independently obtained by the student), and critical review of both. Your complete proposal should be a minimum of 1000 words.

Paper (30%)

Papers are to be a minimum of 1500 words. Your paper must be grammatically correct, with correct punctuation and spelling. Publication information must be provided for any source you use, in a commonly used format you prefer.

Final Exam (30% each)

The final exam will be made available on the last day of class, Wednesday, December 7th and is due on by 11:59pm on Sunday, December 11th. Students must submit their completed exam on D2L. The exam will consist of multiple essay-style questions.

Letter grades reflect the following standards, as outlined in the UCalgary Academic Calendar:

- A: Excellent—superior performance, showing comprehensive understanding of subject matter.
- B: Good — clearly above average performance with knowledge of subject matter generally complete.
- C: Satisfactory — basic understanding of the subject matter.
- D: Minimal pass — marginal performance; generally insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject.
- F: Fail — unsatisfactory performance or failure to meet course requirements.

The quality of writing will be a component in grading.

Grading scale:

A+	97-100	A	93-96	A-	90-92
B+	87-89	B	83-86	B-	80-82
C+	77-79	C	73-76	C-	70-72
D+	67-69	D	60-66	F	59 and below

Important Dates:

Start of Classes: September 6th
End of Add/Drop Period: September 16th
Reading Break: November 6th - 12th
Recognized Holidays: October 10th (Thanksgiving)
Last day to Withdraw: December 7th
End of Classes: December 7th
Final Exam Period: December 10th – 21st

IMPORTANT DEPARTMENTAL, FACULTY AND UNIVERSITY INFORMATION

Academic Accommodations

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures. The student accommodation policy can be found at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf.

Students needing an Accommodation because of a disability or medical condition should communicate this need to Student Accessibility Services in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities.pdf. Students needing an Accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfil requirements for a graduate degree, based on a protected ground other than disability, should communicate this need, preferably in writing, to their instructor.

Absence or Missed Course Assessments

Students who are absent from class assessments (tests, participation activities, or other assignments) should inform their instructors as soon as possible. If the reason provided for the absence is acceptable, instructors may decide that any arrangements made can take forms other than make-up tests or assignments. For example, the weight of a missed grade may be added to another assignment or test.

Academic Advising

If you are a student in the Faculty of Arts, you can speak to an academic advisor in the Arts Students' Centre about course planning, course selection, registration, program progression and more. Visit the Faculty of Arts website at arts.ucalgary.ca/advising for contact details and information regarding common academic concerns.

For questions specific to the philosophy program, please visit phil.ucalgary.ca. Further academic guidance is available by contacting David Dick (Undergraduate Program Director dgdick@ucalgary.ca) or Jeremy Fantl (Honours Advisor jfantl@ucalgary.ca). If you have questions regarding registration, please email Rebecca Lesser (Undergraduate Program Administrator phildept@ucalgary.ca).

Writing Assessment and Support

The assessment of all written assignments—and, to a lesser extent, written exam responses—is based in part on writing skills. This includes correctness (grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, etc.), as well as general clarity and organization. Research papers must include a thorough and accurate citation of sources. Students are also encouraged to use Writing Support Services for assistance. For more information, and other services offered by the Student Success Centre, please visit ucalgary.ca/ssc.

Required Technology

In order to successfully engage in their learning experiences at the University of Calgary, students taking online, remote and blended courses are required to have reliable access to the following technology:

- A computer with a supported operating system, as well as the latest security, and malware updates;
- A current and updated web browser;
- Webcam (built-in or external);
- Microphone and speaker (built-in or external), or headset with microphone;
- Current antivirus and/or firewall software enabled;
- Broadband internet connection.

Most current laptops will have a built-in webcam, speaker and microphone.

Responsible Use of D2L

Important information and communication about this course will be posted on D2L (Desire2Learn), UCalgary's online learning management system. Visit ucalgary.service-now.com/it for how-to information and technical assistance.

All users of D2L are bound by the guidelines on the responsible use of D2L posted here: <https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/commitment-to-the-responsible-use-of-d2l/>. The instructor may establish additional specific course policies for D2L, Zoom, and any other technologies used to support remote learning.
