Course Description:

This course introduces formal languages for sentential and predicate logic, along with proof procedures for these logics. You will be expected to devote a significant amount of time outside of class working through exercise questions. The final grade will be determined by 3 in class tests and 3 assignments. Policy on missed tests and late assignments: zero will be the assigned grade unless a university approved justification is promptly provided. Assignments will not be accepted via email under any circumstances. The assignments can be submitted in class or into a drop-box located in the department of philosophy (12th floor Social Sciences Building) by 4:00 PM on the due date. There is no Registrar-scheduled final exam for this course.

Academic Honesty

Cheating or plagiarism on any assignment or examination is regarded as an extremely serious academic offence, the penalty for which may be an F on the assignment, an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw from the University. See the relevant sections on 'Academic Misconduct' in the current University Calendar. Intellectual honesty requires that your work include adequate referencing to sources. Plagiarism occurs when you do not acknowledge or correctly reference your sources. If you have questions about correct referencing, consult your instructor.

Academic Accommodation

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services. SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For more information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit <http://www.ucalgary.ca/access/>. Students who require accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their instructor. The full policy on student accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf
