Office Hours: MW 3:00 - 4:00

Course Description

In this course, we shall undertake a detailed investigation of some central normative ethical theories, such as utilitarianism and Kantianism. Various accounts of goodness, for example, hedonism and preferentism, will be discussed as well. We will also examine topics on free will and responsibility.

Required Texts

Students will be supplied with a list of papers or book chapters. Each of these is available online in journals or in other venues to which our University Library subscribes. Links to the papers or chapters will be posted on D2L.

Evaluation

(1) Three (final) papers. The first (4-5 page) paper will be worth 30% of the final grade. The second and third (4-5 page) papers will each be worth 35% of the final grade. Writing and the grading thereof is a factor in evaluation. Writing should be clear, coherent, and to the point.

(2) Three Rough Drafts: For each paper you will write a (one-page) draft. At least one of your classmates and I will review this draft. Some of you may have your drafts workshopped by the class as a whole. These drafts are not graded, although a missing draft will reduce the grade of your final corresponding paper. (See the policy on late assignments below.)

Tentative Assignment Dates:

First draft paper: Wednesday, Oct. 5

First final paper: Wednesday, Oct. 12

Second draft paper: Friday, Nov. 4

Second final paper: Wednesday, Nov. 9

Third draft paper: Friday, Dec. 2

Third final paper: Friday Dec. 9

(3) Class Participation: You are expected to be an active participant in class discussions. Read the course material and have questions and comments ready.

(4) There will be no Registrar-scheduled final exam.

(5) There will be no provisions for “extra-credit.” A passing grade on any particular component of the course is not required for a pass in the course as a whole.

Grading Method

Each paper will be assigned a letter grade. The student's overall grade for the course will be an average of the student's letter grades on the student's papers. Letter grades will be averaged by using the following scheme.

Conversion of Number Grades into Letter Grades:

A+ = 100-96; A = 95-90; A- = 89-85; B+ = 84-80; B = 79-75; B- = 74-71; C+ = 70-67; C = 66-62; C- = 61-59; D+ = 58-54; D = 53-50; F = 49-0.

Policy on Late Assignments

No unexcused late final essays or drafts will be accepted without official and adequate documentation. Missing final essays will receive an "F" (a numerical score of zero). Each missing essay draft will reduce the grade of the final corresponding essay by two whole letter grades.

Academic Honesty

Cheating or plagiarism on any assignment or examination is regarded as an extremely serious academic offence, the penalty for which may be an F on the assignment, an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw from the University. See the relevant sections on 'Academic Misconduct' in the current University Calendar. Intellectual honesty requires that your work include adequate referencing to sources. Plagiarism occurs when you do not acknowledge or correctly reference your sources. If you have questions about correct referencing, consult your instructor.

Academic Accommodation

Student's seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services. SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For more information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit <http://www.ucalgary.ca/access/>. Students who require accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their instructor. The full policy on student accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf
