Course Description

In this seminar you will work on forming and developing your ideas for your honours thesis through the writing and presenting of multiple drafts of your thesis work. You will do the work for this course in conjunction with your larger project of working with your honours supervisor on your honours thesis.

Required Texts

None

Course Requirements

There will be no Registrar Scheduled Final exam. Evaluation of writing is an important component of the grade in this class. No component is such that passing it is required to pass the course. Students are expected to attend all class sessions and to participate as interlocutors in the presentations given by their fellow students.

Preliminary bibliography--due in class Sept. 30 (5%)

First Presentation—Sept. 30 (5%)

Second Presentation—Oct. 21 or 28 (20%)

Final Presentation—Nov. 25 or Dec. 2 (20%)

Final Draft (15 page minimum) of Thesis Work--due in D2L dropbox by 23:59 Dec. 9 (50%)

Late assignments:

Late assignments will be penalized at the rate of 1 letter grade per day unless discussed with me in advance or in cases of medical or family emergency.

Academic Honesty

Cheating or plagiarism on any assignment or examination is regarded as an extremely serious academic offence, the penalty for which may be an F on the assignment, an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw from the University. See the relevant sections on 'Academic Misconduct' in the current University Calendar. Intellectual honesty requires that your work include adequate referencing to sources. Plagiarism occurs when you do not acknowledge or correctly reference your sources. If you have questions about correct referencing, consult your instructor.

Academic Accommodation

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services. SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For more information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit <http://www.ucalgary.ca/access/>. Students who require accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their instructor. The full policy on student accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf
