COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course offers an introduction to the basic epistemologies (ways of knowing) of Canadian Indigenous peoples with an emphasis on the theoretical and ontological principles that form Indigeneity. We will explore Indigenous ways of knowing, being and doing and how these domains inform the conceptualization, construction, and renewal of knowledge. The course will examine the constructs of Indigeneity and how they are informed by relationship, collective responsibility, reciprocity, respect, spirituality and identity.

Indigenous knowledge is relational and participatory; hence, the general structuring of the class and the assignments will reflect this perspective. Students will be required to explore Indigenous epistemology through engaging and participating in a process that reflects Indigenous ways of creating and validating knowledge.

CLASS STRUCTURE AND INSTRUCTION METHODS - The course draws from a mixture of Western and Indigenous knowledge. Methods include: short lectures, videos, class discussions, student presentations, and presentations by guest lecturers. The lectures provide the basic course material. The course schedule may be altered throughout the term to accommodate emerging issues and events. Note: Readings for the scheduled day need to be read prior to class. There will be a field trip scheduled during the term.

COURSE OBJECTIVES & LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- To increase the student's awareness of, understanding of, and respect for Indigenous worldviews and perspectives, knowledge, realities, experiences

Indigenous Studies 303 L03

- To introduce the student to ways of knowing that fall outside the western scientific precepts
- To demonstrate insights about Indigenous realities from a multi-disciplinary approach (e.g., history, social work, education, sociology) to the field of Indigenous Studies.
- To give the student experience at critically thinking and analyzing Indigenous peoples experiences within a historical and contemporary context.
- To demonstrate an awareness of the fundamental concepts of the course and how together they aid in the understanding of issues faced by Indigenous peoples
- To develop in the student an understanding of colonialism, and the diverse and enduring impacts upon Indigenous people, and the legacy of the colonial relationship.
- To expand understanding of the concepts of Indigenous and de-colonization
- To expand understanding of the concepts of Indigeneity

TEXTBOOK AND ASSIGNED READINGS - No text is required for this course. Instead, readings will be available on the course D2L site.

COMMUNICATION- I will respond to emails within 48 hours but not on weekends.

ASSIGNMENTS AND EVALUATION

Reflective Writing: 15% each – total 30% - October 24, November 28

The student will complete 2 reflection essays (15 % each) related to course readings and lecture concepts. The essays will consist of 8 pages double spaced that will demonstrate reflection and application of class concepts. The reflective writing should represent an issue of the student's choice from the course reading, films, and discussions. The work should refer to these and must demonstrate analytical thought on the part of the author.

In other words, take an issue and discuss it in depth; do not simply write up a summary of the readings or class discussion.

The concept of “Indigenous Knowledge” is complex and it is important to consider these concepts carefully via Critical Thinking. Critical Thinking involves the ‘thinking about’, and the ‘questioning of’ knowledge presented, versus the mere ‘acceptance’ of knowledge presented. The process of Critical Thinking is much more in line with Indigenous Knowledge as I encourage students to think for themselves and to engage in deep reflection.

All sources that you use should be properly cited. Although these are short papers, please do not regard them as informal. They should have proper grammar and essay structure, including an introduction, discussion/argument and conclusion. Citation format APA or MLA

Please submit the papers via the dropbox in the course's D2L site.

Class presentation:25% November 7, 21, 28 and December 5

You are responsible for a research project that will focus on the development and presentation of a formal and in class oral presentation on your chosen topic. The presentation will examine a historical and/or contemporary issue/topic that is related to Indigenous peoples ``Ways of Knowing and Being``. Please ensure that your topic incorporates the course objectives. You will be required to research and develop a 30-45-minute seminar which will include class discussion and questions.

The presentation will be completed in class and may include handouts and visual aids (power point, web project, art piece or any other appropriate presentational approach). Reference materials should be incorporated in the presentation utilizing APA format.

The presentation must critically examine and analyze an issue facing Indigenous people and explore the impact on their ``Ways of Knowing and Being`` from a historical and contemporary perspective. (e.g. colonization, education, social justice, research) You will need to discuss your project with me by October 3.

You will be responsible for developing and providing to the instructor three discussion questions and a thorough and accurate response to the questions.

The presentation requires at least 6 references which must be from academic sources. Reference materials should be incorporated in the presentation and synopsis utilizing APA or MLA format.

Please provide the instructor with hard copies of presentation materials, references, and questions/answers.

Final Essay: 25% Due – December 5

The essay is a 10-page research paper that critically analyzes your presentation topic's concepts and constructs and the relationship to the course objectives. `

Please submit a digital copy of the paper via the dropbox in the course's D2L site.

Class Participation – 20 %

Participation is deemed as attendance, class discussion and active participation in group learning. This course will be highly interactive and will include various opportunities for active engagement during each class session, including organized discussions, debates, small group work, etc. Your participation will be graded based on the consistency and thoughtfulness of your contributions, and on your alert and respectful interaction with others in the class.

Course work Submissions for Indigenous Studies

All course work submissions for Indigenous Studies, not handed in during class or D2L, such as assignments, papers, take home final exams and other course work related to this program of study should be submitted to SS 756 (Department of Political Science, 7th floor of Social Sciences) during their office hours. When the office is closed, the brown Dropbox is located on the wall beside SS 756. Submissions should no longer be submitted to the 1st floor, SS 102.

It is the student's responsibility to keep a copy of each submitted assignment.

Writing Statement:

Written assignments are often required in Indigenous Studies courses, including this one, and the quality of writing skills, including but not limited to such elements as grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, clarity, citation, and organization, will be taken into account in the determination of grades. Students are encouraged to make use of the services offered through Writing Support Services in the Student Success Centre (3rd floor of the Taylor Family Digital

Indigenous Studies 303 L03

Library) or at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support>

Grade Scale: The International Indigenous Studies Program uses the percentage conversion scale below. Your final grade will be converted to the University's official 4-point scale at the end of term. The interpretation of the undergraduate university grading system can be found at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1.html>. The A+ grade is assigned rarely, and only for exceptional work.

A+	96-100
A	90-95.99
A -	85-89.99
B+	80-84.99
B	75-79.99
B-	70-74.99
C+	65-69.99
C	60-64.99
C-	55-59.99
D+	53-54.99
D	50-52.99
F	0-49.99

These are the grade ranges and specific numeric values I assign to letter grades on D2L. Any individual assignment grade is converted to the mid-point value of the grade range and then weighted accordingly. Although the A+ is solely and honorific than entails no additional points in the four point system, I will use this mark to distinguish superlative work that exceeds expectations in style, intellectual depth and breadth, sophistication, creativity and originality.

LATE PENALTIES

Papers received after midnight of the due date will be considered 'late', and students will lose 2 marks per day thereafter.

IMPORTANT POLICIES AND INFORMATION

Supporting Documentation and the Use of a Statutory Declaration

As stated in the University Calendar:

Students may be asked to provide supporting documentation for an exemption/special request. This may include, but is not limited to, a prolonged absence from a course where participation is required, a missed course assessment, a deferred examination, or an appeal. Students are encouraged to submit documentation that will support their situation. Supporting documentation may be dependent on the reason noted in their personal statement/explanation provided to explain their situation. This could be medical certificate/documentation, references, police reports, invitation letter, third party letter of support or a statutory declaration etc. The decision to provide supporting documentation that best suits the situation is at the discretion of the student. Students cannot be required to provide specific supporting documentation, such as a medical note.

Students can make a Statutory Declaration as their supporting documentation (available at ucalgary.ca/registrar). This requires students to make a declaration in the presence of a Commissioner for Oaths. It demonstrates the importance of honest and accurate information provided and is a legally binding declaration. Several registered Commissioners for Oaths are available to students at no charge, on campus. For a list of locations to access a Commissioner for Oaths, visit ucalgary.ca/registrar).

Indigenous Studies 303 L03

Falsification of any supporting documentation will be taken very seriously and may result in disciplinary action through the Academic Discipline regulations or the Student Non-Academic Misconduct policy.

This statement is accessible at: <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html>

Please note that while the form of supporting documentation provided is at the discretion of the student, the instructor has the discretion not to accept the supporting documentation if it does not corroborate the reason(s) given for the exemption/special request.

Absence From a Mid-term Examination:

Students who are absent from a scheduled term test or quiz for legitimate reasons are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of this email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor. Any student who fails to do so forfeits the right to a makeup test.

Deferral of a Final Examination:

Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams>.

Appeals:

If a student has a concern about the course or a grade they have been assigned, they must first discuss their concerns with the instructor. If this does not resolve the matter, the student then proceed with an academic appeal. The first step in an academic appeal is to set up a meeting with the Department Head. Appeals must be requested within 15 days of receipt of the graded assignment.

University Regulations:

Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the University policies found in the Academic Regulations sections of the Calendar at www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/academic-regs.html.

Indigenous Studies 303 L03

Student Accommodations:

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf>.

Plagiarism And Other Forms Of Academic Misconduct:

Academic misconduct in any form (e.g. cheating, plagiarism) is a serious academic offence that can lead to disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Students are expected to be familiar with the standards surrounding academic honesty; these can be found in the University of Calgary calendar at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html>. Such offences will be taken seriously and reported immediately, as required by Faculty of Arts policy.

Copyright Legislation:

As stated in the University of Calgary Calendar, Academic Regulations, “students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright and requirements of the copyright act to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.”

<https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf> and <https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html>

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP):

FOIP legislation requires that instructors maintain the confidentiality of student information. In practice, this means that student assignment and tests cannot be left for collection in any public place without the consent of the student. It also means that grades cannot be distributed via email. Final exams are kept by instructors but can be viewed by contacting them or the main office in the Department of Political Science. Any uncollected assignments and tests meant to be returned will be destroyed after six months from the end of term; final examinations are destroyed after one year.

Evacuation Assembly Points:

In the event of an emergency evacuation from class, students are required to gather in designated assembly points. Please check the list found at www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints and note the assembly point nearest to your classroom.
