Course Details

COURSE OVERVIEW

The course begins with a study of Canada's form of "cabinet" (or "responsible") government. Other aspects of the Canadian regime are then discussed in the context of cabinet government. Students will gain an understanding and appreciation of how Canada's governing institutions relate to each other.

EXPECTATIONS

Attendance is not mandatory. In the past, students who did not attend the lectures have done poorly on the final examination.

Class Tests are generally held on Tuesdays and Class Debates are generally held on Thursdays. Class Tests will be administered in the first ten minutes of the class period, so please arrive on time. Plan commutes accordingly.

D2L use is expected. Students will use D2L to access some materials, submit Debate Papers and get announcements from the instructor.

Students should expect to spend about two hours reading the assigned materials each week. All materials are required readings. Depending on the quality of the class notes taken, students could expect to spend another two to four hours preparing for the final examination.

During lectures, please be considerate of others by switching off cell phones. Sending/receiving texts and browsing the Web is extremely disruptive to others and will not be tolerated. Please no eating during class.

Questions are always welcome. The instructor is always happy to answer questions about the course during his office hours. Many questions can be answered by reading this syllabus, so keep it with your notes. If you prefer to contact the instructor by email, please put your course number – POLI 321 – in the subject line. Emails will generally be answered within one business day, excepting weekends. Please take that into account.

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

The textbooks and lectures will prepare students to:

- Explain the key elements of constitutionalism and responsible government in Canada (the confidence convention, the doctrines of individual and collective ministerial responsibility, conventions regarding selection of prime minister, etc.)
- Connect other aspects of our form of government, such as the selection and operation of cabinet, relations between cabinet and Parliament and the core operation of political parties to the key elements of responsible government.

Participating in the Class Debate portion of the course will prepare students to:

- Speak in front of a group.
- Write a persuasive essay about an assigned topic.
- Practise good citizenship by seeing the merits of both sides of contentious issues

ASSESSMENT COMPONENTS

Class Tests – 40% of the overall grade

There will be nine (9) Class Tests conducted at the beginning of certain lectures – the ones marked with an asterisk (*) in the Course Schedule. Grades for the best eight (8) of these tests will count towards the final grade. Each Class Test will have five (5) multiple-choice questions testing your knowledge of the assigned readings for that day.

Value: Best eight (8) out of nine (9) tests for a total of 40% of the overall grade

Date, time and location: See Course Schedule below

Length: The first ten (10) minutes of the relevant lectures (approximately)

Type: Closed-book, in class, invigilated, on paper

Description: Five (5) Multiple choice questions

Class Debates – 30% of the overall grade

Class Debates will feature two (2) teams of three (3) students taking opposing sides on one of the issues in the Charlton and Barker text. Detailed instructions will be distributed separately. There are two components to the Class Debate evaluation:

1. A Debate Paper. Each student will prepare a paper about the issue in advance of his/her Debate Presentation using the materials in the Charlton and Barker text and other materials as appropriate. The paper will be graded by the teaching assistant using a rubric available on D2L. These papers will be graded in part on the quality of the writing. Papers will be submitted in PDF format through a D2L Dropbox.

2. The Debate Presentation. Students will receive a team grade for the Debate Presentation. Debate Presentations will be graded either by the instructor or the teaching assistant using a rubric available on D2L. Presentations will be graded in part on the quality of the oral presentation.

Value: 30% of the final grade, consisting of the Debate Paper (20%) and the Debate Presentation (10%).

Final Examination – 30% of the overall grade

Date, time and location: As scheduled by the Registrar

Length: Two hours

Type: Closed-book, invigilated, graded by the instructor

Description: Written answers graded, in part, on the quality of the writing

Associated learning outcomes: See learning outcomes for the textbook and lectures.

GRADE SCALE

The following grading scale will be used:

A+ (91-100)	B+ (77-79)	C+ (67-69)	D+ (55-59)
A (85-90)	B (73-76)	C (63-66)	D (50-54)
A- (80-84)	B- (70-72)	C- (60-62)	F (0-49)

Other policies and information

Writing Statement:

Written assignments are often required in Political Science courses, including this one, and the quality of writing skills, including but not limited to such elements as grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, clarity, citation, and organization, will be taken into account in the determination of grades. Students are encouraged to make use of the services offered through Writing Support Services in the Student Success Centre (3rd floor of the Taylor Family Digital Library) or at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support>.

Grade Reappraisals

Up to one week after an exam or assignment is returned, a student may seek a reappraisal of the grade from the instructor. To do so, the student must submit a written request briefly explaining the grounds for the reappraisal. Note, a reappraisal may raise, lower or confirm the grade originally assigned.

Absence from Class Tests

As only the best eight (8) of nine (9) Class Tests are counted, students who miss one class test will not be offered an opportunity to re-write. Students who are absent from more than one Class Test for legitimate reasons (e.g. illness with the appropriate documentation) are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of this email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor. Any student who fails to do so forfeits the right to a makeup test.

Deferral of a Final Examination:

Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams>.

Appeals:

If a student has a concern about the course or a grade they have been assigned, they must first discuss their concerns with the instructor. If this does not resolve the matter, the student then proceed with an academic appeal. The first step in an academic appeal is to set up a meeting with the Department Head. Appeals must be requested within 15 days of receipt of the graded assignment.

University Regulations:

Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the University policies found in the Academic Regulations sections of the Calendar at www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/academic-regs.html.

Student Accommodations:

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf>.

Plagiarism and Other Forms Of Academic Misconduct:

Academic misconduct in any form (e.g. cheating, plagiarism) is a serious academic offence that can lead to disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Students are expected to be familiar with the standards surrounding academic honesty; these can be found in the University of Calgary calendar at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html>. Such offences will be taken seriously and reported immediately, as required by Faculty of Arts policy.

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP):

FOIP legislation requires that instructors maintain the confidentiality of student information. In practice, this means that student assignment and tests cannot be left for collection in any public place without the consent of the student. It also means that grades cannot be distributed via email. Final exams are kept by instructors but can be viewed by contacting them or the main office in the Department of Political Science.

Any uncollected assignments and tests meant to be returned will be destroyed after six months from the end of term; final examinations are destroyed after one year.

Evacuation Assembly Points:

In the event of an emergency evacuation from class, students are required to gather in designated assembly points. Please check the list found at www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints and note the assembly point nearest to your classroom.
