Reading Current News

The character and content of US security policy often may be fast changing due to events. Thus, it is useful to pay attention to current events relating to US security policy. The main US newspapers are New York Times, The Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, Los Angeles, The Washington Times, among others; unfortunately, almost all of these have imposed subscription fees in the past year and are now behind pay walls. RealClearPolitics' World and Defense sections are free, and provide some coverage (may be behind pay wall). The weekly news magazines such Time also do cover some elements of US security policy but again seem to be at least partially behind pay walls.

There are also a large number of useful internet sources, including US government websites, that can be accessed for free; indeed, many if not most US security issues being currently debated are done so in a mixture of journals, newspapers and blogs.

Class Participation

There is no mark for class participation, but students are expected to come to class prepared for discussion. This means staying up with the required readings as set forth on the course outline, plus reading at least one book or the equivalent beyond the identified required reading. Students are also expected to pay attention to current affairs as it may concern the subject of the course. Students must also be prepared to be called upon to offer their assessment of the issues being discussed.

Seminar Presentations

In each seminar session one or more students will be expected to give a presentation on a set question. Each student is required to give at least one presentation. The oral presentation should be approximately 30 minutes in length, and develop an argument that addresses the set question. Further instructions, including a list of questions, will be furnished in a separate handout that is available on D2L in the Assignment folder.

Do note that students' seminar presentation and research proposal/essay cannot be on the same topic.

Research Proposal

Each student must develop a research question for their course research essay. The purpose of the research proposal is for the student to develop their research question, identify the context and significance of the research question, and identify the research methodology to be used to address the research question. The research proposal shall be 1200 words in length, and must in addition include a one page bibliography of sources cited or consulted.

Due date is Wednesday, 12 February, 2020.

Do note that the generation of a research proposal requires conducting research!

Research Essay

The research essay will address the research question set forth in the research proposal. The research essay shall be 8,000 - 10,000 words in length; word count does not include required bibliography. Due date for the research essay is Wednesday, 8 April, 2020.

Do note that students' seminar presentation and research proposal/essay cannot be on the same topic.

Final Exam

The final exam is a take home research essay of 5000 words. The Final Exam will be handed out at the end of the last seminar, Wednesday, 15 April, 2020 and must be submitted as an attachment to an email sent to the course instructor no later than 12:00 Noon, Monday, 20 April, 2020.

Writing Statement

Written assignments are often required in Political Science courses, including this one, and the quality of writing skills, including but not limited to such elements as grammar, punctuation, sentence structure, clarity, citation, and organization, will be taken into account in the determination of grades. Students are encouraged to make use of the services offered through Writing Support Services in the Student Success Centre (3rd floor of the Taylor Family Digital Library) or at http://www.ucalgary.ca/ssc/writing-support.

Grade Scale

The following grading scale will be used:

A+=	97-100	B+=87-89	C+ = 77-79	D+=	65-69
A =	93-96	B = 83-86	C = 73-76	D = 0	60-64
A- =	90-92	B- = 80-82	C- = 70-72	F =	0-59

Late Penalties

A late penalty of three (3) percent will be applied for each day past the required submission date a piece of work is submitted. This late penalty applies to the research proposal and the research essay. A late penalty of three (3) percent will be applied for each hour past the required submission time and date for the final take home exam.

Class Preparation and Desire2Learn

Seminars focus on the material presented in the textbook and general discussion relating to the topic(s) outlined in the seminar schedule. Students are expected to read the assigned text chapters and readings before class, as well as to read one book or the equivalent (5-6 articles) and be prepared for class discussion. Important information and additional readings for US Security Policy (Political Science 633) are posted on Desire2Learn. Students should regularly check the Announcements section of Desire2Learn for ongoing notices.

Your instructor may not necessarily cover all of the materials in the course outline, and the outline may be subject to change. It is the responsibility of the student to understand the concepts presented in the textbook and lectures. If you are unsure of any of the concepts, please take the initiative to ask the instructor during class.

Instructor Instructions

Students requiring assistance are encouraged to speak to the instructor during class or their office hours. Should you wish to meet outside of office hours, please email the instructor or teaching assistant to make an appointment. It is to the student's advantage to keep such appointments.

Email is commonly used by students to communicate with their instructor. However, it does limit the effectiveness of the communications and may not be the best way for instructors to answer student questions, especially those requiring an explanation of concepts covered in this course or some personal concerns. Therefore the instructor may request a telephone call or personal meeting. Your instructor will inform you as to his/her expectations about emails.

Students are welcome to use laptops and other electronic note-taking devices in this course. Please be considerate of others and switch off all cell phones when you enter the classroom. Sending/receiving texts and browsing the Web is extremely disruptive to others and will not be tolerated.

IMPORTANT POLICIES AND INFORMATION

Supporting Documentation and the Use of a Statutory Declaration

As stated in the University Calendar:

Students may be asked to provide supporting documentation for an exemption/special request. This may include, but is not limited to, a prolonged absence from a course where participation is required, a missed course assessment, a deferred examination, or an appeal. Students are encouraged to submit documentation that will support their situation. Supporting documentation may be dependent on the reason noted in their personal statement/explanation provided to explain their situation. This could be medical certificate/documentation, references, police reports, invitation letter, third party letter of support or a statutory declaration etc. The decision to provide supporting documentation that best suits the situation is at the discretion of the student. Students cannot be required to provide specific supporting documentation, such as a medical note.

Students can make a Statutory Declaration as their supporting documentation (available at ucalgary.ca/registrar). This requires students to make a declaration in the presence of a Commissioner for Oaths. It demonstrates the importance of honest and accurate information provided and is a legally binding declaration. Several registered Commissioners for Oaths are available to students at no charge, on campus. For a list of locations to access a Commissioners for Oaths, visit ucalgary.ca/registrar).

Falsification of any supporting documentation will be taken very seriously and may result in disciplinary action through the Academic Discipline regulations or the Student Non-Academic Misconduct policy.

This statement is accessible at: https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html

Please note that while the form of supporting documentation provided is at the discretion of the student, the instructor has the discretion not to accept the supporting documentation if it does not corroborate the reason(s) given for the exemption/special request.

Absence From a Mid-term Examination:

Students who are absent from a scheduled term test or quiz for legitimate reasons are responsible for contacting the instructor via email within 48 hours of the missed test to discuss alternative arrangements. A copy of this email may be requested as proof of the attempt to contact the instructor. Any student who fails to do so forfeits the right to a makeup test.

Deferral of a Final Examination:

Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams.

Appeals:

If a student has a concern about the course or a grade they have been assigned, they must first discuss their concerns with the instructor. If this does not resolve the matter, the student then proceed with an academic appeal. The first step in an academic appeal is to set up a meeting with the Department Head. Appeals must be requested within 15 days of receipt of the graded assignment.

Student Accommodations:

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services; SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf.

University Regulations:

Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the University policies found in the Academic Regulations sections of the Calendar at www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/academic-regs.html.

Plagiarism And Other Forms Of Academic Misconduct:

Academic misconduct in any form (e.g. cheating, plagiarism) is a serious academic offence that can lead to disciplinary probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Students are expected to be familiar with the standards surrounding academic honesty; these can be found in the University of Calgary calendar at http://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html. Such offences will be taken seriously and reported immediately, as required by Faculty of Arts policy.

Copyright Legislation:

As stated in the University of Calgary Calendar, Academic Regulations, "students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright and requirements of the copyright act to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy."

https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf and https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP):

FOIP legislation requires that instructors maintain the confidentiality of student information. In practice, this means that student assignment and tests cannot be left for collection in any public place without the consent of the student. It also means that grades cannot be distributed via email. Final exams are kept by instructors but can be viewed by contacting them or the main office in the Department of Political Science. Any uncollected assignments and tests meant to be returned will be destroyed after six months from the end of term; final examinations are destroyed after one year.

Evacuation Assembly Points:

In the event of an emergency evacuation from class, students are required to gather in designated assembly points. Please check the list found at www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints and note the assembly point nearest to your classroom.

Faculty of Arts Program Advising and Student Information Resources:

For program planning and advice, visit the Arts Students' Centre in Social Sciences 102, call 403-220-3580 or email artsads@ucalgary.ca. You can also visit arts.ucalgary.ca/advising for program assistance.
