Course Description

This course focuses on all aspects of human behavior (i.e., emotion, cognition, physiology, bias, pathology, decision-making) as it relates to the law or legal system. The primary goal of the course is to introduce some of the ways that psychology and the law intersect; forensic psychologists focus on examining how people function in a legal context. You will be exposed to theory and scientific evidence as it pertains to the field, but also to inherent challenges. The course will confront the views of forensic psychology that you may have acquired through media portrayals and present the realities of the field.

Course start date: Aug 2, 2023

Assessment Method

Students are expected to attend class regularly and to participate in class discussions. There will be three noncumulative exams in this course, one of which is during the final exam period. The exams will most likely consist of multiple-choice and/or short-answer questions from the text, class discussions, and lectures/PowerPoint slides. The two midterms will occur during the class time slot (75 minutes) and the final exam will be two hours.

Exams in this course are closed book. The use of resources, including class notes, the textbook, online resources, Smart watches, and calculators is prohibited during the exams in this course. Students may not communicate with others about course material or the exam either in person or electronically during exams.

If an exam is missed, it can only be made up following the provision of appropriate documentation that is provided in the required time frame – Please follow the “Absence from a Test/Exam” rules listed later in this course outline. Not reading the guidelines will not be accepted as a reason for failing to book makeup exams appropriately; failure to follow the makeup exam requirements will result in a grade of zero being assigned for that exam.

- 1) 25% of your mark will be based on a Midterm Exam #1 on Friday, October 6th, 2023. Midterm Exam #1 will consist of material from Chapters 2, 3, 4, 6 and 7. You will have the length of the class [i.e., 75 minutes] to complete the exam. This assessment will consist of multiple choice and short answer questions. *Remember that this is a closed book exam.
- 2) 20% of your mark will be based on a Midterm Exam #2 on Wednesday, November 1st, 2023. Midterm Exam #2 will consist of material from Chapters 8, 10 and 11. You will have the length of the class [i.e., 75 minutes] to complete the exam. This assessment will consist of multiple choice and short answer questions. *Remember that this is a closed book exam.
- 3) 25% of your mark will be based on a Final Exam scheduled by the Registrar. The Final Exam will consist of material from Chapters 5, 13, 14, and 15 and will consist of short answer questions.
- 4) 25% of your mark will be based on your work in the paper component of the course. Students will write an assessment report that is 8-10 pages (not including title page) in length (typed, double-spaced, 12-point font, 1” margins) which describes a fictional offender of your choosing. You cannot use an offender from the news or a TV show or movie – you must create your offender. You will need to use headings (e.g., identifying information, referral question, historical information, current presentation, diagnosis/formulation) to guide the reader. Be aware that you cannot hand in a paper/part of a paper that you (or anyone else) have previously submitted for grading in another course. You also cannot generate a paper using Chatgpt or any other related technology.
- 5) APA formatting will be included as part of the evaluation of your paper. Details and a sample APA-style paper are provided here: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/18/>
- 6) More specific details regarding grading and expectations will be discussed in class on September 27th, 2023, and posted on D2L under “Communications”. The paper should be submitted to the relevant dropbox on D2L by the end of class on November 22, 2023 at the latest. Late assignments will be accepted with a 5% deduction penalty per day, including weekends. Without approved documentation (approval of this documentation as sufficient is at the discretion of the instructor: please refer to the Statutory Declaration form on the University of Calgary website), assignments more than 7 days late (35% deduction) will no longer be accepted.

- 7) Papers will be graded according to: adequate length; comprehensive consideration of your offender; accurate information consistent with offender type; grammar; spelling and punctuation; sentence construction; ability to effectively condense information; summary. More detailed information about the paper will be provided in class and on D2L.
- 8) 5% of your mark will be based on completion of three brief thought papers (approximately one page in length, single spaced) that occur throughout the semester (Due September 22, October 13, December 1, 2023). More detailed information about the thought papers will be provided in class and on D2L. Send your thought papers to the course Dropbox on D2L by the end of class on the day that each thought paper is due. In general, students will need to write a short document (can be in point form) summarizing their own thoughts in response to questions that will be posted on D2L under “Communications” prior to the due date (i.e., Ways in which media portrayals of forensic psychology topics influence beliefs; Ways to educate the general public about the relationship between mental health and crime that would actually have an impact; Factors that make effective treatment difficult). Grade will reflect handing in of all three documents on time, appropriate length, single spaced, and thoughtful discussion of the posted questions. Late thought papers will be accepted with a 5% penalty per day, including weekends. Without approved documentation, thought papers more than 3 days late will not be accepted.

Once approved by the course instructor, and at their discretion, alternative arrangements for missed assessments may be considered <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-1-2.html>. Students may be asked for documentation <https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/m-1.html>.

Department of Psychology Criteria for Letter Grades

Psychology course instructors use the following criteria when assigning letter grades:

A+ grade: Exceptional Performance. An A+ grade indicates near perfect performance on multiple choice and short answer exams. For research papers/essays/course projects/presentations, an A+ grade is awarded for exceptional work deserving of special recognition and is therefore not a common grade.

A, A- Range: Excellent Performance. Superior understanding of course material. Written work is very strong in terms of critical and original thinking, content, organization, and the expression of ideas, and demonstrates student's thorough knowledge of subject matter.

B Range: Good Performance. Above average understanding of course material. Written work shows evidence of critical thinking and attention to organization and editing but could be improved in form and/or content.

C Range: Satisfactory Performance. Adequate understanding of course material. Knowledge of basic concepts and terminology is demonstrated. Written work is satisfactory and meets essential requirements but could be improved significantly in form and content. Note: All prerequisites for courses offered by the Faculty of Arts must be met with a minimum grade of C-.

D range: Marginally meets standards. Minimal understanding of subject matter. Written work is marginally acceptable and meets basic requirements but requires substantial improvements in form and content. Student has not mastered course material at a level sufficient for advancement into more senior courses in the same or related subjects.

F grade: Course standards not met. Inadequate understanding of subject matter. Written work does not meet basic requirements. Student has not demonstrated knowledge of course material at a level sufficient for course credit.

Grading Scale

A+	96-100%	B+	80-84%	C+	67-71%	D+	54-58%
A	90-95%	B	76-79%	C	63-66%	D	50-53%
A-	85-89%	B-	72-75%	C-	59-62%	F	0-49%

It is at the instructor's discretion to round off either upward or downward to determine a final grade when the average of term work and final examinations is between two letter grades.

To determine final letter grades, final percentage grades will be rounded up or down to the nearest whole percentage (e.g., 89.5% will be rounded up to 90% = A but 89.4% will be rounded down to 89% = A-). You are not allowed to request submission of "extra" work to increase your grade.

Additionally, you need to request review of midterm exam or paper grades within two weeks of receiving your grade.
