Course description	Introductory study of the techniques of contemporary dance.
	Notes: Not open to Dance Majors.
	NOT INCLUDED IN GPA
Course learning	This course will be a movement-based study of contemporary dance at an introductory outcomes	level; it is experiential learning through active physical participation. Students work on discovering and refining movement skills and individual expression in movement by exploring elements of contemporary dance including centering, alignment, gravity, breath, contraction & release, fall & recovery, suspension, balance/off balance, opposition, succession, swing & momentum, and spiral. Explorations in contemporary technique, improvisation, composition and performance, writing and performance discussions are an integral part of the learning process.
	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to:
	1. Recognize important elements specific to the study of contemporary dance.
	2. Challenge the strength of mind and body with improved stamina, flexibility, balance, rhythm and musicality.
	3. Feel confident entering into a dance class setting by a gained understanding of the form and general dance class etiquette.
	4. Understand the historical context for contemporary dance
	5. Attend a contemporary dance performance and reflect on the experience with an informed understanding.
Course schedule	Attend and fully participate in every class. Be prepared - you must arrive on time, dressed to dance, having reviewed previous class material. Your approach to class work should include a program of stretching and strengthening and a pre-class warm-up. Explore all material deeply and intelligently, and join in class discussions. Fulfill all class assignments and contribute to the collective learning environment.
	Readings and/or video support materials will be provided and discussed in-class relative to the course content, throughout the course duration.

Details: Perform a solo, duet, or small group dance choreographed using class material, and individual artistic choices. Students are expected to display confidence and knowledge of the material. Expectations for Requirements, Assignments and Assessment: Assessment

expectations

As this is a Pass/Fail course, no grade value will be placed on the requirements, assignments and assessments. Students are expected to complete each of these in a thoughtful, informed and engaged manner. Should students not complete any one of these in an acceptable condition, the instructor will inform them. Students may be asked to complete an alternate project in lieu of any unacceptable requirement, assignment or assessment.

	Expectations for Writing:
	Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.
	Expectations for Attendance and Participation:
	See Assessment Components - Requirement 1: Attendance
	Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details.
	If you show up late for or leave early from class two (2) times, this will be counted as a full class absence.
	If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege more than once and you will receive half an absence.
	For studio courses, if you opt out of full participation and choose to sit for a portion of the class, this will be counted as non-participation and will be marked as half an absence.
	Students are responsible for any and all material missed during an absence.
Grading scale	This course is a pass (CR) or fail (F) course. The grades in this course will not be included in the calculation of student's grade point average, as outlined in the section F.2 of the Undergraduate Calendar for 2016-2017.
	Due to the experiential nature of the course, classes are equivalent to assignments.
	Therefore classes missed will be detrimental to the final grade. More than four missed classes will result in failure to pass the course.
Academic	classes will result in failure to pass the course. Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact at futurestudents@ucalgary.ca or visit them at the MacKimmie Block 117.

Course outlines for	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other transfer credit	institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference.
	Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
Letter of permission	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
