Course description	Introductory study of the techniques of contemporary dance. This is an introductory technique class, aiming to build the dancer's physical awareness as well as offering an experiential perspective on the possibilities of contemporary dance, and the role which dance can play within today's society. The class starts with understanding natural human movement patterns, and focuses on the ability to co-ordinate and conversely deconstruct the body's natural co-ordination. The movement combinations are created to trigger the connection between fantasy and physicality, and to understand the different muscle tensions possible within our movement. Anchored in contemporary dance technique there is focus on weight and momentum, moving in and out of the floor, and finding a balance between release and stability. We will progress through a series of simple repetitive exercises into more complex combinations that move upside down and in and out of the floor. The classwork will aim to awaken our senses, enlivening both internal and external awareness. Classwork is aimed at grounding the dancers, asking all of us to root in our own bodies at this present moment in time. The class will also offer insight into dance creation process. Class material is (partially) derived from choreographic tasks, and the dancers will be given the underlying tasks upon which the material is based. The tasks are built upon the search for a physical language to embody relevant ideas, and ask for the dancers to be both emotionally open and physically creative. Interaction and cooperation with peers, in the spirit of play, is a large part of the course work. Writing and class discussions aim to help students connect the embodied work to the world around them and find practical applications for the class principles in their daily lives. Out-of-class activities: 1.) Students are required to attend and write about 2 contemporary dance performances during the session. Students attending live performances is preferred, but online links will also be made available to the students on the D2L site throughout the semester. See Assessment components for details. 2.) Rehearsal for mid-term and final assignment as needed.

Guidelines for Zoom Sessions	Zoom is a video conferencing program that will allow us to meet at specific times for a “live” video conference, so that we can have the opportunity to meet each other virtually and discuss relevant course topics as a learning community. To help ensure Zoom sessions are private, do not share the Zoom link or password with others, or on any social media platforms. Zoom links and passwords are only intended for students registered in the course. Zoom recordings and materials presented in Zoom, including any teaching materials, must not be shared, distributed or published without the instructor’s permission. The use of video conferencing programs relies on participants to act ethically, honestly and with integrity; and in accordance with the principles of fairness, good faith, and respect (as per the Code of Conduct). When entering Zoom or other video conferencing sessions (such as MS Teams), you play a role in helping create an effective, safe and respectful learning environment. Please be mindful of how your behaviour in these sessions may affect others. Participants are required to use names officially associated with their UCID (legal or preferred names listed in the Student Centre) when engaging in these activities. Instructors/moderators can remove those whose names do not appear on class rosters. Non-compliance may be investigated under relevant University of Calgary conduct policies (e.g. Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy). If participants have difficulties complying with this requirement, they should email the instructor of the class explaining why, so the instructor may consider whether to grant an exception, and on what terms. For more information on how to get the most out of your zoom sessions visit: https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/guidelines-for-zoom/. If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session). Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Students will be advised by their instructor when they are expected to turn on their webcam (for group work, presentations, etc.). The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.
