Course description	Elementary study of techniques of contemporary dance. The term contemporary dance includes a number of approaches, styles and philosophies toward performance, choreography, and training. The work that you experience in a contemporary dance class or dance concert will vary. Each artist/teacher brings his or her history, artistry, philosophy and methodology. My approach is based on principles of Polish physical theatre, release technique, Gyrokinesis, body-mind centering and contact improvisation. I propose a path toward organic movement; a dynamic exploration and experience of the body in space. This course will focus on developing your foundational skills and artistic abilities as dancers. In addition to artistic presentation, technical skill, and body conditioning, we will be engaging in basic improvisation and creation exercises to expand our understanding of dance and our sensitivity to our own dancing instrument. We will incorporate alternative training and somatic methods such as Gyrokinesis. Students will be encouraged to display tangible changes in their approach, to embody a strong work ethic and demonstrate an understanding of how to put concepts discussed or experienced in class into their body, from class to class, week to week.
Course learning outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will have: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Increased their kinesthetic awareness and attention to movement detail.</li> <li>2. Begun to use momentum, weight and force with efficiency.</li> <li>3. Developed increased spatial clarity.</li> <li>4. Increased their understanding of dynamic alignment and support.</li> <li>5. Become better aware of their anatomical structure.</li> <li>6. Increased their range in qualities of motion and dynamics, producing more readily and easily, specific textures, qualities, and sensations as they move.</li> <li>7. Learned to vary their application of phrasing and musicality.</li> <li>8. Become aware of their individual training needs and built an appropriate warm up and cool down to address their individual readiness needs.</li> </ol>

Assessment expectations	Guidelines for Submitting Assignments: Performance reflections will be submitted on D2L. Final movement assignment is presented in class. Missed or Late Assignments: Students are expected to submit assignments on or before the due dates specified above. A student should contact their instructor in the event that they are unable to complete assignments on time. Late assignments will carry a penalty of 10% per day (or per class in the case of an in-class assignment.) Attendance and Participation Expectations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A significant part of your grade is based on participation. Participation means not only showing up for class, but also attending to the material at hand with effort and engagement.</li> <li>• With regard to participation, classes are considered equivalent to assignments. Thus, more than 2 absences per term will have an adverse effect on your final grade.</li> <li>• If you miss more than one week of classes, your final grade will begin to drop by as much as 10% per missed class.</li> <li>• If you miss more than two weeks of classes, you have the potential to fail the course.</li> <li>• If you show up late for or leave early from class, this will be counted as half an absence.</li> <li>• If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege more than once and you will receive half an absence.</li> <li>• For studio courses, if you opt out of full participation and choose to sit for a portion of the class, this will be counted as non-participation and will be marked as half an absence.</li> <li>• Students are responsible for any and all material missed during an absence. If you sustain a significant injury during the term that will impact your participation for longer than a week's worth of classes, your case will be submitted to the Dance Division Committee to address your situation.</li> </ul> Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Guidelines for Zoom Sessions	Zoom is a video conferencing program that will allow us to meet at specific times for a “live” video conference, so that we can have the opportunity to meet each other virtually and discuss relevant course topics as a learning community. To help ensure Zoom sessions are private, do not share the Zoom link or password with others, or on any social media platforms. Zoom links and passwords are only intended for students registered in the course. Zoom recordings and materials presented in Zoom, including any teaching materials, must not be shared, distributed or published without the instructor’s permission. The use of video conferencing programs relies on participants to act ethically, honestly and with integrity; and in accordance with the principles of fairness, good faith, and respect (as per the Code of Conduct). When entering Zoom or other video conferencing sessions (such as MS Teams), you play a role in helping create an effective, safe and respectful learning environment. Please be mindful of how your behaviour in these sessions may affect others. Participants are required to use names officially associated with their UCID (legal or preferred names listed in the Student Centre) when engaging in these activities. Instructors/moderators can remove those whose names do not appear on class rosters. Non-compliance may be investigated under relevant University of Calgary conduct policies (e.g Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy). If participants have difficulties complying with this requirement, they should email the instructor of the class explaining why, so the instructor may consider whether to grant an exception, and on what terms. For more information on how to get the most out of your zoom sessions visit: https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/guidelines-for-zoom/. If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session). Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Students will be advised by their instructor when they are expected to turn on their webcam (for group work, presentations, etc.). The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.
