Instructor Module 2 Office Email Office Hours	Kelly Keenan CHD529 kelly.keenan1@ucalgary.ca By Appointment
Day(s),time(s) and location of Class	Tuesdays and Thursdays 10am-11:50am, AUX GYM KN117
Prerequisites	Dance 207. Audition required if Dance 207 was not completed in the previous term. See the SCPA Auditions website for further details: http://scpa.ucalgary.ca/studentsalumni/auditions#cadance
Supplementary fees	This course requires a mandatory supplementary fee of $78 payable at registration for accompaniment.
Course description	Further elementary study of the techniques of contemporary dance.
Course learning outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will have: 1. Continued building a foundation in their study of contemporary dance; 2. Kept developing a base ability to somatically react to imagery-based triggers; 3. Began identifying where to most optimally apply imagery to generate kinaesthetic responses addressing their individual needs; 3. Kept refining their understanding of the human anatomical structure; 4. Diversified their artistic and physical responses to gravity; 5. Kept learning to vary their application of phrasing and musicality.
Course schedule	Faculty will be making continuous in-studio assessment throughout the course to ascertain that the student is developing the movement patterns and artistry befitting a dancer in progression through the elementary level.
Assessment components	1. 40% Skill –ongoing– –Technical Proficiency, Clarity, Artistry, and Presentation– The student will be assessed on their technical development in class on an ongoing basis; Forcier will assess 20% corresponding to Module 1, Keenan, 20% corresponding to Module 2. 2. 40% Learning Approach and Participation –ongoing– – Attitude, Commitment, Progress, Ability to Assimilate Information, Attendance– A significant part of the grade will be based on participation. By participating, we mean not only showing up for class, but attending to the material at hand. Effort shows and we will be sure to take note of those fully engaged in the class. If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, do not expect to obtain this privilege more than once. Forcier will assess 20% corresponding to Module 1, Keenan, 20% corresponding to Module 2.

	3. 10% Performance Attendance – submission deadline: before the end of term– All students must attend: 2 contemporary dance performances, as well as 1 drama performance, 1 music performance and 1 art event. If you are unsure of the type or validity of a performance/event, please consult the instructor prior to purchasing your ticket. Student must submit the ticket stubs for each performance/event in one envelope with their names clearly written on the back of each ticket. 4. 10% Final Movement Assignment – To be Discussed in Class and Posted on the D2L
Assessment expectations	Guidelines for Submitting Assignments Participation is equal to assignments in this class. The instructor will make note of the quality of your individual engagement at the end of each class. Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass To reach the passing grade, the student must participate in all class activities with respect for their peers, instructor, and own practice. This involves making an effort to keep an open mind, and demonstrating satisfactory progress in their understanding and application of the course’s material over the length of the term. Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details. Expectations for Attendance and Participation: Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details. FOR GRADED DANCE STUDIO COURSES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A significant part of your grade is based on participation. Participation means not only showing up for class, but also attending to the material at hand with effort and engagement. • With regard to participation, classes are considered equivalent to assignments. Thus, more than 2 absences per term will have an adverse effect on your final grade. • If you miss more than one week of classes, your final grade will begin to drop by as much as 10% per missed class. • If you miss more than two weeks of classes, you have the potential to fail the course. • If you show up late for or leave early from class, this will be counted as half an absence. • If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege more than once and you will receive half an absence. • For studio courses, if you opt out of full participation and choose to sit for a portion of the class, this will be counted as non-participation and will be marked as half an absence. • Students are responsible for any and all material missed during an absence. • If you sustain a significant injury during the term that will impact your participation for longer than a week’s worth of classes and if this injury is verified by a medical practitioner’s note, your case will be submitted to the Dance Division Committee to address your situation.

Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf.
Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2.html) and are reminded that plagiarism-- Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Midterm and final examination scheduling	Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period (12-22 December for Fall 2016 term; 15-26 April for Winter 2017 term); students should therefore avoid making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If a student is unable to write an exam through no fault of his or her own for medical or other valid reasons, documentation must be provided and an opportunity to write the missed exam may be given. Students are encouraged to review all examination policies and procedures: ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final
Deferrals of exams/term work	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with your advisor if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines. ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-6.html ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-7.html
SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program, funded by the Students' Union Quality Money, allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge. 2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance. 4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from 45 minutes prior to 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time.

	6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.

Course outlines for transfer credit	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
Letter of permission	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
