Course Description	Dance 311 H(2S-4) Elementary Jazz Dance I Elementary study of the techniques of jazz dance. Dance 411 H(2S-4) Intermediate Jazz Dance I Intermediate study of the techniques of jazz dance. This course uses an inquiry-based learning approach. Inquiry-based learning is both a philosophy and a methodology.... In its simplest sense, inquiry-based learning is a question-driven search for understanding and a collaborative experience. It is a process where the instructor helps learners to formulate relevant and worthwhile questions, hypothesize solutions, search and critically analyze information. Through this process students construct meaningful information structures, design, apply and effectively communicate solutions in a way that demonstrates evidence of new understandings and ways of thinking. Ref: http://commons.ucalgary.ca/documents/Inquiry_Into_Inquiry.pdf
Course Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To expand the student’s knowledge and experience of jazz dance as an art form, exploring a range of movement styles within jazz.</li> <li>• To further develop the dancer’s technical base, physical strength and stamina, flexibility and coordination through the jazz idiom. The discipline of centre practice AND improvisation will be emphasized. Emphasis will be on music/rhythm-based work and will emphasize footwork and the distinctive whole-body accentuations indicative of jazz dance</li> <li>• To develop personal dynamics, accuracy, emotional range, musicality and phrasing</li> <li>• To enhance performance skills</li> <li>• To develop an understanding and appreciation of dance and its function for the human spirit and community life</li> <li>• To develop strong improvisation skills</li> <li>• To develop an understanding of the roots of jazz and its many historical or contemporary stylings.</li> <li>• To deepen and reinforce an understanding of jazz music-form and function- and how it relates to jazz dance</li> <li>• To engage in cooperative learning and self-teaching in order to identify and understand their own learning styles</li> </ul>

Course Activities and Content	This course is an elementary/intermediate exploration of the principles and techniques of jazz dance. As per your registration you will be expected to meet the development level of either 300 (Elementary) or 400 (Intermediate) work. Skill acquisition moves beyond traditional understandings of technique to include rhythm, creation and improvisation. Expressivity and musicality, as well as development of an understanding of historical context related to jazz and its development will be emphasized. This somatic historicity will be explored through music studies, rhythm-based and groove-based jazz studies as well as improvisation; these are central to the jazz experience and will be emphasized. Modern-jazz, Latin-jazz, Afro-jazz and other contemporary urban jazz dance styles will also be explored. Students will be asked to harness and synthesize all physical and creative resources in order to engage with the material and create a personal and dynamic studio experience. Dancing from the inside out! Due to the mixed level of this class studio work will require some collaborative learning; in this way students will need to be self-motivated and willing to engage in occasions that require some self-teaching or peer-teaching, all the while exercising both patience and generosity. In addition to committed class participation students will be expected to complete: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Mid-term research project undertaken with the use of the textbook as oral group presentation (To be discussed at greater length in class).</li> <li>2. Attend 2 Jazz performances. Submit ticket and program (Jazz music or/and dance performance) one week before the end of the semester.</li> <li>3. Participate in the March 30, 2015 U of C Monday Night Jazz Series, Jazz Orchestra concert performance and accompanying rehearsals (Rehearsals will be modest as the work will mostly be undertaken in class). Our class will be part of U of C Monday Night Jazz music series with guest trumpeter Michael Philip Mossman. Should you be unable to perform then you will be asked to perform two distinct pieces in-studio for your peers.</li> <li>4. In class participation should be robust. This includes participation in structured improvisations, quoting class work, both at midterm and at the end of term. There will be a panel present for evaluation of the work. Students will be required to complete a self-evaluation/peer evaluation at mid-term only. It is highly recommended that you keep a class journal. Keep a written record of your experiences in class and bring your journal to class and mid-term interviews. Refer to your journal when reflecting on new insights and research questions, as well this could assist with the self-evaluation process.</li> </ol> Examples of opportunities available for the required (2) jazz performances: DJD Dancer Choreographed show The dancer choreographed show is entitled Borderland. Assessment	Students will be assessed on an ongoing basis in class and they will also be videotaped periodically for the purposes of assessing technical and skill development. 10% = Mid-term self/peer evaluation  20% = Group mid-term research project  30% = Embodiment of class material-mid-term and final  20% = Daily class participation and attendance  20% = Progress and development Mid-term group research project. More details will be discussed in class. Embodiment of class material: students are expected to achieve levels of development beyond mere attendance, which means practice outside of class time, listening to music, watching films and seeking out ‘readings’. This will be evident in the bodies’ capacity for change. Daily class: students are expected to participate in all discussions and to assume responsibility for physical and mental commitment to the material presented in class, and to achieve levels of development beyond mere attendance. Indeed the student must demonstrate progress, growth and development. Taking class is not a passive process. Progress and development: - ability to apply corrections, physical and intellectual effort, focus and engagement with class material, contribution and articulation in discussions. As well it is important that student contribute to culture of class by showing leadership and contributing energy and an obvious state of engagement.

COURSE OUTLINES FOR TRANSFER CREDIT	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
DEFERRALS OF EXAMS/TERM WORK	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. LETTER OF PERMISSION	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
PLAGIARISM	Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. For details see the University of Calgary Calendar. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3 rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
