Course Description	Historical survey of dance: origins through the nineteenth century.
Course Overview	This course will explore sacred, social and theatrical dance from the pre-historic era to the end of the 19 th century. We will look at the history of the art form in the context of the cultural, social and political events that helped shape the development of dance; we will study specific historical dances and styles; and we will learn about the individuals who most contributed to the development of dance as a theatrical form from the Renaissance era to the end of the 19 th century in Europe. The course content will consist of lectures, readings, DVD's/videos, still images, a Morris Dance workshop, and course assignments. Lecture notes will be posted on D2L for all classes. Students may use these online notes as they choose: as a framework to which additional notes can be added during class; as a post-lecture reference for notes taken during class; or as a study guide for the tests.
Course Learning Outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: 1. Identify the artistic, social, cultural, and political contexts that influenced the seminal developments in the history of dance from the Ancient Egyptian era to the end of the 19 th century. 2. Define, as well as compare and contrast, the major characteristics of Renaissance Dance, Baroque Dance, Romantic Ballet, and Classical Ballet. 3. Identify specific dances and/or ballets from Ancient Greece; Medieval, Renaissance and Baroque Europe; and 19 th century Russia. 4. Name the major figures who influenced and transformed the development of social and theatrical dance from the 16 th to the end of the 19 th centuries, and identify their major contributions. 5. Comprehend and extract main ideas from assigned dance history readings. 6. Attend a dance performance with enthusiasm and confidence.
Course Schedule:	The following course topics will be covered: 1. Ancient Dance: Sept 9-29 2. Medieval Dance: Oct 5-14 3. Renaissance Dance: Oct 19-28

	4. Baroque Dance: Nov 2-9 5. Romantic Ballet: Nov 9-18 6. Classical Ballet: Nov 23-Dec 7 There will be no classes on: Mon Oct 12 (Thanksgiving, and Wednesday Nov 9.

Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2.html) and are reminded that plagiarism-- Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Midterm and final examination scheduling	Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period (12-22 December for Fall 2016 term; 15-26 April for Winter 2017 term); students should therefore avoid making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If a student is unable to write an exam through no fault of his or her own for medical or other valid reasons, documentation must be provided and an opportunity to write the missed exam may be given. Students are encouraged to review all examination policies and procedures: ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final
Deferrals of exams/term work	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with your advisor if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines. ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-6.html ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-7.html
SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program, funded by the Students’ Union Quality Money, allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge. 2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance.

	4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from 45 minutes prior to 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicond. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time. 6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.

Course outlines for transfer credit	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
Letter of permission	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
