Learning Resources: Required Readings, Textbooks and Materials	Readings will be posted on D2L. No textbook is required.
Prerequisites	None.
Course Description	Historical survey of western theatre dance.
Course Overview	This course will explore the radically new approaches to theatre dance that emerged in North America and Western Europe at the turn of the 20 th century, and will piece together a chronological narration of their development through to the end of the 20 th century and beyond. We will examine the individual philosophies of seminal choreographers and their unique approach to choreography. We will also take a more thematic approach and explore the cultural and artistic movements from which these individual styles emerged i.e. Neo-Romanticism, Modernism, Expressionism, Formalism, Neo-classicism, and Postmodernism. The course content will be presented and explored through lectures, videos/DVD's, and assigned readings.
Course Learning Outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: 1. Identify the artistic, social, cultural, and political contexts that influenced the seminal developments in the history of theatre dance in the 20 th century. 2. Define, compare, and contrast the major characteristics of Neo-Romanticism, Modernism, Expressionism, Formalism, Neo-classicism, and Postmodernism. 3. Identify the major characteristics of 20 th century modern dance, postmodern dance, and ballet. 4. Name the major figures who influenced and transformed the development of modern dance, postmodern dance, and ballet in the 20 th century; compare and contrast their philosophies and unique approaches to dance-making; and identify their major contributions to the history of dance. 5. Comprehend and extract main ideas from assigned dance history readings. 6. Attend a dance performance with enthusiasm and confidence.
Course Schedule:	The following course topics will be covered: 1. Modern Dance: The Early Years 2. The Diaghilev Era 3. German Expressionists 4. Modern Dance Pioneers 5. American Ballet 6. Pioneer Descendants

	7. Postmodern Dance: 1960's, 70's & 80's 8. German Dance Theatre 9. Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf.
Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2.html) and are reminded that plagiarism-- Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

Midterm and final examination scheduling	Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period (12-22 December for Fall 2016 term; 15-26 April for Winter 2017 term); students should therefore avoid making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If a student is unable to write an exam through no fault of his or her own for medical or other valid reasons, documentation must be provided and an opportunity to write the missed exam may be given. Students are encouraged to review all examination policies and procedures: ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final
Deferrals of exams/term work	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with your advisor if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines. ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-6.html ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-7.html
SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program, funded by the Students' Union Quality Money, allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge. 2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance. 4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from 45 minutes prior to 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicon. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date,

	access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time. 6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.
