Course overview	Students will be asked to harness and synthesize all physical and creative resources in order to engage with the material and create a personal and dynamic studio experience. Dancing from the inside out! Authentic and modern-jazz, Latin-jazz and Afro-jazz will be explored as well as other contemporary urban jazz dance styles. Due to the mixed level of this class, studio work will require some collaborative learning; in this way students will need to be self-motivated and willing to engage in occasions that require some self-teaching or peer-teaching, all the while exercising both patience and generosity. As per your registration you will be expected to meet the development level of either 300 (Elementary) or 400 (Intermediate) work. It should be noted that skill acquisition moves beyond traditional understandings of technique, moving beyond imitation to include performative/expressive essences, rhythmic sophistication, bold improvisation and creation skills-in a jazz-way. Expressivity and making the music visible will be central for the spectrum of jazz styles we will explore- from authentic/early jazz to contemporary variations. Development of an understanding of the historical context related to jazz and its development over time will be emphasized. This somatic historicity will be explored through music studies, skill development and improvisation; these are central to the jazz experience and will be emphasized. Jazz dance is especially varied and detailed –without a single syllabus/approach it has

	many expressions evident curiosity and work ethic are central. Do take class body, mind and spirit and demonstrate systematic growth. Elements such as; ability to focus, stay concentrated, robust and dynamic physical shaping, “groundedness” and relationship to floor- as in pliant feet and hunkered stance, rhythmic sophistication and ability to demonstrate subdivision of time and swing. Rugged individuality and dynamic flashes of the spirit must be present. Assessment expectations	Expectations for Writing: Please attend to elements of style and composition, grammar, spelling and clarity of ideas. Consider an editor or reader. This could be a peer helper or member of the Student Success Centre- online or in a one-on-one consultation. Asher Ghaffar, Coordinator, Writing Support Services (TFDL 368D) asher.ghaffar@ucalgary.ca, 403-210-7963 Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details. Expectations for Attendance and Participation: It is expected that students attend all classes. As the course is embodied and experiential in style and the content is cumulative thus missing more than 3 classes will have an adverse effect on your final grade. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details. Guidelines for Formatting Assignments Use a style of your choosing- something like APA. Type your paper on a computer and print it out on standard white 8.5 x 11 –inch paper with a title page. Double-space the entire paper and use a legible font, something like Times New Roman in 11 pt. font. Leave only one space after periods or other punctuation marks, set the margins of your document to 1 inch on all sides and indent the first line of a paragraph one half-inch (five spaces or press Tab once) from the left margin. Guidelines for Submitting Assignments Reflection papers will be submitted during class time in hard copy. Late Assignments Late assignments are unacceptable Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass Attendance is imperative for an experiential/embodied/practical course. A state of engagement should be evident and progress and development apparent. Daily class requires students to participate in all discussions and to assume responsibility for physical and mental commitment to the material presented in class, and to achieve levels of development beyond mere attendance. Taking class is an active process. A = superior performance Excellent attendance and participation, indeed perfect- 100% effort and consistency. Clear application and integration of class/studio feedback. Fearless exploration of physicality and expression. High level of concentration. Outstanding self-awareness. Ability to change/great improvements. STUDENT STRIVES FOR NEW INSIGHTS, GROWTH AND NEW WAYS OF UNDERSTANDING. B = Good Excellent attendance and participation Displays initiative, applies class feedback. Strives to be fearless in explorations.

Integrates and demonstrates commitment to class material. Demonstrates improvement of abilities. Good self- awareness.

C = Good attendance and good effort but possibly inconsistent effort.
 Inconsistent application of feedback. Limited or tentative in explorations and improvement of abilities. Weak self -awareness.

D = Poor or inconsistent attendance or work effort.
 Incomplete or unfulfilled class work. Late assignments, lack of commitment or self-initiative.

Division of Dance Attendance Policy

- A significant part of your grade is based on participation. Participation means not only showing up for class, but also attending to the material at hand with effort and engagement.
- With regard to participation, classes are considered equivalent to assignments. Thus, more than 3 absences per term will have an adverse effect on your final grade.
- If you miss more than one week of classes, your final grade will begin to drop by as much as 10% per missed class.
- If you miss more than two weeks of classes, you have the potential to fail the course.
- If you show up late for or leave early from class, this will be counted as half an absence.
- If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege more than once and you will receive half an absence.
- For studio courses, if you opt out of full participation and choose to sit for a portion of the class, this will be counted as non-participation and will be marked as half an absence.
- Students are responsible for any and all material missed during an absence.
- If you sustain a significant injury during the term that will impact your participation for longer than a week’s worth of classes and if this injury is verified by a medical practitioner’s note, your case will be submitted to the Dance Division Committee to address your situation.
