Assessment components	Assignment 1: Goals Value: 5% Due Date: September 18, 2017 Type: Written (1-2 pages) Description: Describe the goals you want to achieve in this course (i.e., Why do you want to take this course? What do you want to take away from this course?), your previous dance history/knowledge (i.e., Where have you taken class? What kind of style of dance? How many years of dance and/or ballet?), and lastly list any previous injuries that your instructor needs to know about and if these have resolved or are reoccurring. Please indicate if you have sought medical attention (including physiotherapy or massage therapy) for the affected area.  Assignment 2: Reading Value: 5% Due Date: September 18, 2017 Type: Read and write (1-2 pages), in-class discussion (will require out of class time) Description: Details will be posted on D2L

	Assignment 3: In-class exercise  Value: 5%  Due Date: November 20, 2017  Type: In-class demonstration and discussion (will require out of class time)  Description: Details will be posted on D2L Assignment 4: Performance attendance  Value: 5%  Due Date: December 8, 2017  Type: Out-of-class attendance, in-class discussion  Description: You must attend one ballet performance. Please present the ticket stub (paper or electronic) following the performance and have a brief discussion about the performance (i.e., dancers, costumes, style) Participation:  Value: DNCE 321 – 40%, DNCE 421 – 35%  Description: Active participation in this course includes focus, work ethic, receptiveness to corrections and feedback, and attendance. In addition, it is encouraged that you ask questions and actively participate in class discussions. Please see “Expectations for attendance and participation” below for details. Skill development:  Value: DNCE 321 – 40%, DNCE 421 – 45%  Description: The instructor will be assessing progress throughout the semester. Specifically, ballet technique development, musicality, strength, and overall performance will be assessed. This will also include a midterm assessment with the instructor. It is encouraged that you keep a dance journal and bring it to class to write down exercises and/or corrections. These journals will not be graded since it is for your personal skill development and growth.
Assessment expectations	Guidelines for Submitting Assignments Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass Expectations for Writing:  Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details. Guidelines for Formatting Assignments Late Assignments Expectations for Attendance and Participation:  Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details. FOR GRADED DANCE STUDIO COURSES

- A significant part of your grade is based on participation. Participation means not only showing up for class, but also attending to the material at hand with effort and engagement.
- With regard to participation, classes are considered equivalent to assignments. Thus, more than 1, 2, or 3 (fill in based on how many times the class meets per week) absences per term will have an adverse effect on your final grade.
- If you miss more than one week of classes, your final grade will begin to drop by as much as 10% per missed class.
- If you miss more than two weeks of classes, you have the potential to fail the course.
- If you show up late for or leave early from class, this will be counted as half an absence.
- If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege more than once and you will receive half an absence.
- For studio courses, if you opt out of full participation and choose to sit for a portion of the class, this will be counted as non-participation and will be marked as half an absence.
- Students are responsible for any and all material missed during an absence.
- If you sustain a significant injury during the term that will impact your participation for longer than a week's worth of classes and if this injury is verified by a medical practitioner's note, your case will be submitted to the Dance Division Committee to address your situation.

FOR PASS/FAIL DNCE COURSES

- Due to the experiential nature of this course, classes are equivalent to assignment. Therefore, classes missed will be detrimental to the final grade. More than four (4) missed classes will result in a fail for the course.
- If you show up late for or leave early from class two (2) times, this will be counted as a full class absence.
- If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege more than once and you will receive half an absence.
- For studio courses, if you opt out of full participation and choose to sit for a portion of the class, this will be counted as non-participation and will be marked as half an absence.
- Students are responsible for any and all material missed during an absence.

Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf
Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge.</li> <li>2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc.</li> <li>3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance.</li> <li>4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from the time the Box Office opens until 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket.</li> <li>5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time.</li> <li>6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.</li> </ol>

Course outlines for transfer credit	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
Letter of permission	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
