Course description	This course provides an overview of the approaches to dance pedagogy for teaching children and youth in public schools and studio contexts. Students will engage in reflection, discussion, and a variety of practical and written activities as we explore the method and practice of teaching dance as an art and educational medium. Students will gain knowledge and experience of the teaching and learning process as we examine the role of the dance teacher, the many aspects of the dance context, the needs of young learners, age-appropriate and genre-specific dance content, a wide array of instructional methods, and curriculum design.

Fieldwork: students will be required to observe two dance classes for children/youth (either in person or online) outside of the scheduled class time. This course may not be repeated for credit. Course learning By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: outcomes 1. reflect upon their experiences in dance and articulate through discussion and in writing their beliefs and values as dance educators. 2. prepare, manage, and monitor dancers and dance facilities to ensure physical health and safety in the dance environment. 3. create and maintain supportive and morally safe learning environments; display commitment to psychosocial wellbeing, inclusivity, and diversity in the dance environment. 4. distinguish and select suitable dance content when planning genre-specific lessons. 5. integrate understanding of motor development and how dance skills are learned and controlled when planning and delivering dance classes. 6. apply general anatomical and biomechanical principles of alignment and injury prevention strategies when teaching dance. 7. recognize individual anatomical variations and learning style differences; adapt material and use a range of instructional methods to address individual student needs. 8. analyze, evaluate, report upon, and provide constructive feedback on the appropriateness of content and methods used in one's own and other's dance classes, using dance education language. Attention to indigenous learning goals, content and methods 9. structure and deliver effective age-appropriate dance material and activities, both within- and across- dance sessions, to enhance dance learning and practice. 10. create a teaching portfolio that illustrates their knowledge, values, and ability implement curriculum and teach safe and effective dance classes for children and youth. Course schedule Posted to D2L week two 10% Participation – ongoing assessment Assessment components Students will be provided with some modest opportunities to partake in discussions, participate in movement and practice-teaching activities, provide feedback to peers, and demonstrate their active engagement with course content through one-minute physical, oral and written presentations. See expectations in next section for more information. Separate handouts with detailed instructions, due dates and grading rubric for each assignment below will be posted on D2L. 20% Dance Class Observation Reports Students will observe two in-person or online dance classes for children/youth and write or provide a video-taped oral report (750 words) on each class. The classes should be of different dance forms and given to students of different ages and/or levels. Preface with your teaching philosophy statement (500 words) and conclude with rough draft of letter to Government of Alberta letter advocating for teaching dance and teaching through the arts. Please reference what you saw in the studio and how we might use radical thought and cultural sensitivity training to change the future of the arts in education in Alberta, Canada. 20% Dance Lesson Plans

Students will choose two dance forms with which they are familiar and develop two lesson plans for children/youth using the template provided. Anatomy and wellness will be foregrounded.

20% Teaching Practicums -

Using their lesson plans, students will deliver part/all of a dance class on two separate occasions. Emphasis on teacher language and coaching cues. Oral elevator style message of why dance is important will be woven into practicum teaching with both students and parents in mind. (beginning, middle and end of class)

15% Unit Plan

Students will choose a dance form with which they are familiar and write a unit plan using the templates provided.

15% Final Curriculum Portfolio Project – due December 7, 2021

Students will compile the requisite component and create a culminating curriculum portfolio include final draft of letter to the Minister of Education in the Gov't of Albert.

Assessment expectations

Guidelines for Submitting Assignments:

- A portion of your grade is based on participation. Participation means not only showing up for class, but also attending to the discussion and movement material at hand with effort and engagement.
- Written and video-taped oral and movement assignments must be uploaded to the designated drop box on D2L for assessment.

Missed or Late Assignments:

Assignments must to be uploaded by 11:59 PM on the due date. Late assignments will have 10% deducted from the grade per day. Late submissions beyond five days will not be accepted.

Expectations for Writing:

Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Grading scale

For the course as a whole, letter grades should be understood as follows, as outlined in the section F.1.1 Undergraduate Grading System of the Calendar: https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/f-1.html.

• A grade of "C-" or below may not be sufficient for promotion or graduation, see specific faculty regulations.

• The number of "D" and "D+" grades acceptable for credit is subject to specific undergraduate faculty promotional policy.

Guidelines for Zoom Sessions

Zoom is a video conferencing program that will allow us to meet at specific times for a "live" video conference, so that we can have the opportunity to meet each other virtually and discuss relevant course topics as a learning community.

To help ensure Zoom sessions are private, do not share the Zoom link or password with others, or on any social media platforms. Zoom links and passwords are only intended for students registered in the course. Zoom recordings and materials presented in Zoom, including any teaching materials, must not be shared, distributed or published without the instructor's permission.

The use of video conferencing programs relies on participants to act ethically, honestly and with integrity; and in accordance with the principles of fairness, good faith, and respect (as per the Code of Conduct). When entering Zoom or other video conferencing sessions (such as MS Teams), you play a role in helping create an effective, safe and respectful learning environment. Please be mindful of how your behaviour in these sessions may affect others. Participants are required to use names officially associated with their UCID (legal or preferred names listed in the Student Centre) when engaging in these activities. Instructors/moderators can remove those whose names do not appear on class rosters. Non-compliance may be investigated under relevant University of Calgary conduct policies (e.g Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy). If participants have difficulties complying with this requirement, they should email the instructor of the class explaining why, so the instructor may consider whether to grant an exception, and on what terms. For more information on how to get the most out of your zoom sessions visit: https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/guidelines-for-zoom/.

If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session). Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Students will be advised by their instructor when they are expected to turn on their webcam (for group work, presentations, etc.).

The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.

Academic Accommodation

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The Student Accommodations policy is available at https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/access/prospective-students/academic-accommodations.

Students needing an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS) in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities (https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities.pdf). Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than Disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.

Academic integrity, plagiarism
