Both instructors look forward to shaking up the model that attaches the student to the instructor rather than emphasizing the exploration of their own body through the concepts and content presented. The 3/1/2 week model is designed to encourage students to integrate the knowledge gained through both instructors' approach.</li> <li>2. 40% Learning Approach and Participation -ongoing-20% for Module 1 / 20% for Module 2</li> <li>Attitude, Commitment, Progress, Ability to Assimilate Information, Attendance-</li> <li>A significant part of the grade will be based on participation. By participating, we mean not only showing up for class, but attending to the material at hand. Effort shows and we will be sure to take note of those fully engaged in the class. If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, do not expect to obtain this privilege more than once.</li> <li>3. 10% Performance Attendance - submission deadline: before the end of term-</li> <li>All students must attend: 2 contemporary dance performances, as well as 1 drama performance, 1 music performance and 1 art event. If you are unsure of the type or validity of a performance/event, please consult the instructor prior to purchasing your ticket. Student must submit the ticket stubs for each performance/event in one envelope (labeled with class number and name) with their names clearly written on the back of each ticket. This envelope must be submitted the last week of class.</li> <li>4. 10% Final Movement Assignment – To be discussed in class at the beginning of Module 2. To be presented the last week of classes, December 3rd<sup>4</sup> and 5th.</li> </ul> |
