Required Readings:	The Story Factor: Inspiration, Influence, and Persuasion Through the Art of Storytelling by Annette Simmons published by Basic Books in 2006. Available at the University of Calgary bookstore.
Prerequisites	There are no prerequisites for this class and students from every discipline are welcome. NOTE: Drama majors and minors may not count this course towards their field requirements. (Formerly Fine Arts 205).
Course Description	An exploration of the elements of story present in the arts and beyond. Story is an exciting, creative, dynamic and universal form of human expression with the potential to engage and inspire students from across departments and disciplines.
Course Overview	Stories form a foundational component of culture. Evidence shows that every society creates an identity through some type and form of narrative practice. Both individually and collectively, our humanity is built upon storytelling. This course interrogates the ways and means by which we come to know ourselves as a people and as a community through the art of story. We will interrogate the practice of storytelling as a device that both informs and shapes us individually and collectively. This course considers story as an act of expression conveyed used through a variety of disciplines such as music, drama, dance, and the visual arts. Warning: We will explore a diverse plethora of stories. Some of these narratives will be engaging, enlightening and delightful in nature but some will be disturbing, violent or sexually explicit. We will have candid and open discussions about all of these topics. Interrogating the full width and breadth of story is an integral component of the course design. Please note that these sensitive topics can be instructive and useful but also difficult and challenging.

Course Learning Outcomes	By the end of the semester, students will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. define the core elements of story 2. analyze and evaluate the relevance and importance of various types of stories 3. use the application of story as an act of influence in their own lives and careers 4. effectively express course material in an oral and/or written form 5. comprehend the texts and authors studied 6. appreciate the value of self-reflection in the learning process

Assessment Expectations	Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above

the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses. All of the assignments in Drama 205 are expected to be grammatically correct, written using a proper essay format and include citation. The services provided by the Writing Support Services can be utilized by all undergraduate students who feel they require further assistance.

Expectations for Attendance and Participation:

Students are expected to attend class as the midterm and final exams will be partially based on the course lectures. The full responsibility for meeting class, tests and term papers of the section of the course in which he/she is officially registered lies solely with the student. It is the responsibility of students who have prolonged absences from class because of physical and/or emotional health problems to present to the faculty office offering the course a statement from a physician/counsellor attesting to the physical or emotional health of the student. It is expected that this statement will normally be given only if the student presents himself/herself to a physician/counsellor while the problem still exists rather than after recovery.

Guidelines for Formatting Assignments

All assignments need to be typed and double spaced with your full name and student number on the first page. All of the assignments are expected to be grammatically correct and written using a proper essay format. Students are welcome to use APA or MLA to properly cite their work.

Guidelines for Submitting Assignments

Your assignments must be handed in during class time. Please do not email me your assignments as I have a great deal of difficulty opening them and I do not have the resources to print them. Please do not slide them under my door as the cleaning staff throw them away.

Late Assignments

Late assignments will be deducted 10% for each day it is late (including weekends).

Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass

Students must complete and pass all of the assignments and exams to receive credit for this course.

Grading Scale

For the course as a whole, letter grades should be understood as follows, as outlined in the section F.2 of the Undergraduate Calendar for 2015-2016:

Grade	GPA	Description
A+	4.00	Outstanding.
A	4.00	Excellent-superior performance, showing comprehensive understanding of subject matter.
A-	3.70
B+	3.30
B	3.00	Good - clearly above average performance with knowledge of subject matter generally complete.
B-	2.70
C+	2.30
C	2.00	Satisfactory - basic understanding of the subject matter.
C-	1.70	Receipt of a grade point average of 1.70 may not be sufficient for promotion or graduation. (See individual undergraduate faculty regulations.)

		D+ 1.30
		D 1.00	Minimal pass - marginal performance; generally insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject.
		F 0	Fail - unsatisfactory performance or failure to meet course requirements.
Numeric Grading Scale	All assignments are graded on a numerical scale. The following are the letter grade equivalents: A+... 99-100 A . . . 96-98 A- . . 90-95 B+ . . 84-89 B . . . 79-83 B- . . 74-78 C+ . . 69-73 C . . . 64-68 C- . . .59-63 D+ . . 55-58 D . . . 51-54 F . . . 0- 50
MIDTERM AND FINAL EXAMINATION SCHEDULING	Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period (11-22 December for Fall 2015 term; 16-27 April for Winter 2016 term); students should therefore avoid making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If a student is unable to write an exam through no fault of his or her own for medical or other valid reasons, documentation must be provided and an opportunity to write the missed exam may be given. Students are encouraged to review all examination policies and procedures: ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final
DEFERRALS OF EXAMS/TERM WORK	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with your advisor if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines. ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred_final ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-6.html ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/g-7.html
INTERNET AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION DEVICE	elearn.ucalgary.ca/category/d2l/ ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/emergency-instructions/uc-emergency-app The in-class use of computers may be approved by your Instructor. Cell phones and other electronic communication devices should be silenced or turned off upon entering the classroom. If you violate the Instructor's policy regarding the use of electronic communication devices in the classroom, you may be asked to leave the classroom; repeated abuse may result in a charge of misconduct. No audio or video recording of any kind is allowed in class without explicit permission of the Instructor.
ACADEMIC INTEGRITY, PLAGIARISM	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2.html) and are reminded that plagiarism-- Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

COPYRIGHT	It is the responsibility of students to ensure that materials they post or distribute to others comply with the Copyright Act and the University's Fair Dealing Guidance for Students. Further copyright information for students is available on the Copyright Office web page (library.ucalgary.ca/copyright).
ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/ . Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at http://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy_0.pdf
