Session: Fall 2020

Instructor Office Email Office Hours	Patrick Finn CHD014 pfinn@ucalgary.ca By appointment (can be with a group or individual) During the class, we will explore the possibility of a group office hour(s) if it can be done in a way that works for the group. Office hours will be conducted via Zoom.
Day(s),time(s) and location of Class	Fall 2020 asynchronous, online class Once class begins, we can explore the option of synchronized Zoom meetings
Learning resources: required readings, textbooks and materials	All materials provided in class
Learning Technologies and Requirements	There is a D2L site for this course which contains required readings and other relevant class resources and materials (see d2L.ucalgary.ca). In order to successfully engage in their learning experiences at the University of Calgary, students taking online, remote and blended courses are required to have reliable access to the following technology: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A computer with a supported operating system, as well as the latest security, and malware updates; • A current and updated web browser; • Webcam (built-in or external); • Microphone and speaker (built-in or external) or headset with microphone; • Current antivirus and/or firewall software enabled; • Broadband internet connection. Most current laptops will have a built-in webcam, speaker and microphone.
Prerequisites	From the calendar, "Prerequisite(s): 9 units Drama 223, 200 or 210, and 340 or 346. Antirequisite(s): Credit for Drama 411 and 410 will not be allowed."
Course description	From the calendar: "Fundamental approaches and skills in directing covered through theory and practice."
Course learning outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Define directing as a craft or practice, describe the fundamentals of directing, and identify the ways in which directing contributes to a collaborative process; 2. Compose a director's book comprised of (text) analysis, vision, formal plan and research supporting their integration and implementation; 3. Integrate directing fundamentals in a creative process, evaluate results and refine the approach better serve the stated goals / vision.
Course schedule	Each week the instructor will share materials relevant to that week's work. Students are asked to share questions / comments with the instructor who will provide answers relevant to the group (without identifying the source of the question) and individually where necessary. A weekly meeting via Zoom will be scheduled if the group wishes to have one, and scheduling allows for its operation.
Assessment components	Assignment 1 : Director's Book

	Assessment Method: Group and individual assessment Description: students will create director’s book including background research, text analysis, and a formal plan that are integrated under a specific vision for the work. Students will prepare a director’s book for Shakespeare’s Hamlet from which the directing assignments are drawn. Students will be asked to share their book with the class on D2L. To support our work, we will use a free, online scholarly edition of the play (link), and the instructor will provide a performance text student can use for their work. Detailed instructions will be provided in class. Weight: 20% Due Date: Assignment 2: Directing a Monologue Assessment Method: evaluation of the use of directing fundamentals as introduced in class and used to develop a monologue. Evaluation will involve discussion between the instructor and student in order to review the work and discuss the student’s future practice. Description: students will direct the “To be or not to be monologue” from Hamlet using an approach designed for an online class. Detailed instructions will be provided in class. Weight: 20% Due Date: Assignment 3: Directing a Dialogue Assessment Method: evaluation of the use of directing fundamentals as introduced in class, discussed in the first assignment and then used to develop a dialogue. Description: students will direct the “special providence of a sparrow,” dialogue between Hamlet and Horatio using an approach designed for an online class. Detailed instructions will be provided in class. Weight: 20% Due Date: Assignment 4: Directing Portfolio Assessment Method: review of incorporation of directing fundamentals, analysis of emerging directing practice, and supporting materials drawn from the work of the other directors in the class. Description: using the material from the earlier assignments, students will create a directing portfolio that describes their directing practice. Using examples from class work, students will create a portfolio designed to promote their work as directors, and to articulate their strengths and interests. The goal of the portfolio is to capture the student’s development as a director, and to build a formal description of their work that could be used to support future directing work. Detailed instructions will be provided in class. Weight: 40% Due Date: December 7, 2020
Assessment expectations	Guidelines for Submitting Assignments: we will be working creatively in a new domain as we transfer our creative practices out of traditional studios and into online environments. As creators, students are encouraged to be adventurous in their explorations, but gentle in their evaluation of others. We should expect mistakes that are more the fault of current conditions than of those working together in the class. Detailed instructions will be provided in class.

Missed or Late Assignments: late assignments are accepted with a grade deduction of 5% a day up to a maximum of 10%. All assignments must be complete by the final day of classes.

Expectations for Writing:

Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Guidelines for Zoom Sessions

Zoom is a video conferencing program that will allow us to meet at specific times for a "live" video conference, so that we can have the opportunity to meet each other virtually and discuss relevant course topics as a learning community.

	To help ensure Zoom sessions are private, do not share the Zoom link or password with others, or on any social media platforms. Zoom links and passwords are only intended for students registered in the course. Zoom recordings and materials presented in Zoom, including any teaching materials, must not be shared, distributed or published without the instructor’s permission. The use of video conferencing programs relies on participants to act ethically, honestly and with integrity; and in accordance with the principles of fairness, good faith, and respect (as per the Code of Conduct). When entering Zoom or other video conferencing sessions (such as MS Teams), you play a role in helping create an effective, safe and respectful learning environment. Please be mindful of how your behaviour in these sessions may affect others. Participants are required to use names officially associated with their UCID (legal or preferred names listed in the Student Centre) when engaging in these activities. Instructors/moderators can remove those whose names do not appear on class rosters. Non-compliance may be investigated under relevant University of Calgary conduct policies (e.g Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy). If participants have difficulties complying with this requirement, they should email the instructor of the class explaining why, so the instructor may consider whether to grant an exception, and on what terms. For more information on how to get the most out of your zoom sessions visit: https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/guidelines-for-zoom/. Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Students will be advised by their instructor when they are expected to turn on their webcam (for group work, presentations, etc.). Recording Zoom class sessions is at the discretion of the instructor; missing a Zoom class is equivalent to missing an in-person class. The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session – but this is not a requirement. Should an instructor choose to record a class session, students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.
Academic Accommodation	It is the student’s responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The Student Accommodations policy is available at https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/access/prospective-students/academic-accommodations. Students needing an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS) in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities (https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/procedure-for-accommodations-for-students-with-disabilities.pdf). Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than Disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/ .
Academic integrity, plagiarism	Academic Misconduct refers to student behavior which compromises proper assessment of a student’s academic activities and includes: cheating; fabrication; falsification; plagiarism; unauthorized assistance; failure to comply with an instructor’s expectations regarding conduct required of students completing academic assessments in their courses; and failure to comply with exam regulations applied by the Registrar. For information on the Student Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedure please visit: https://ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-academic-misconduct-policy.pdf and

	https://ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-academic-misconduct-procedure.pdf. Additional information is available on the Academic Integrity Website at https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/student-success/learning/academic-integrity.
Internet and electronic communication device	The use of laptop and mobile devices is acceptable when used in a manner appropriate to the course and classroom activities. Please refrain from accessing websites and resources that may be distracting to you or for other learners during class time. Students are responsible for being aware of the University's Internet and email use policy, which can be found at https://www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/electronic-communications-policy.pdf
Intellectual Property	Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.
Copyright	All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (www.ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/acceptable-use-of-material-protected-by-copyright.pdf) and requirements of the copyright act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html.
Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy	Student information will be collected in accordance with typical (or usual) classroom practice. Students' assignments will be accessible only by the authorized course faculty. Private information related to the individual student is treated with the utmost regard by the faculty at the University of Calgary.
