Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass

Passing is dependent upon acquiring a passing grade through satisfactory completion of assignments and growth in technique over the term.

Expectations for Writing:

Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Guidelines for Formatting Assignments

The midterm and final presentations are to be memorized. Guidelines for written assignments will be provided during the term when introduced and detailed on D2L.

Late Assignments

Whenever possible, and with good reason, missed assignments will be rescheduled and graded without penalty.

Expectations for Attendance and Participation:

All classes and rehearsals are mandatory. As an experientially based studio course, in most cases it will not be possible to make up missed classes or presentations. As well, student progress depends to a greater degree on participation of peers than in a standard lecture based course. The absence of one student may negatively impact several others by breaking the sense of ensemble and/or affecting partnered work. The theatre is a collaborative art rather than a solo flight, requiring participants work together. Please honour this tradition of theatre ethics within this class.

This course will introduce voice and text techniques in studio sessions that will consist of group explorations, group or individual exercises, and/or presentations. Each student will be expected to practice (10 to 20 minutes per day), as well as to prepare exercises and texts (to be memorized).

Dress: Clothes in which you can move freely. A considerable amount of time will be spent on the floor, in movement/vocal exercises. Sweats or tights, leotards or T-shirts are recommended. As temperature in the studio can vary, wear layers. Most work will be done in bare feet. No jewelry – no hats – long hair should be tied back.

Please be prepared to begin class promptly at 2:00 p.m. by arriving ahead of time.

A personal interview with the instructor will be scheduled near the end of the term, arranged at instructor/student convenience.

Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for further details.

Grading scale

For the course as a whole, letter grades should be understood as follows, as outlined in the section F.1.1 Undergraduate Grading System of the Undergraduate Calendar for 2017-2018:

Grade	Grade Point Value	Description
A+	4.00	Outstanding performance
Α	4.00	Excellent performance

3.70	Approaching excellent performance
3.30	Exceeding good performance
3.00	Good performance
2.70	Approaching good performance
2.30	Exceeding satisfactory performance
2.00	Satisfactory performance
1.70	Approaching satisfactory performance.
1.30	Marginal pass. Insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject
1.00	Minimal Pass. Insufficient preparation for subsequent courses in the same subject.
0.00	Failure. Did not meet course requirements. Several Faculties utilize an F grade that does not carry weight in calculating the grade point average. This will be noted in the calendar description as "Not Included in GPA" where applicable.
0.00	Incomplete. Sufficient work has not been submitted for evaluation, unable to adequately assess. May also be used when a final exam is not submitted.
	Completed Requirements. Carries no weight in calculating the grade point average. This will be noted in the calendar description as "Not Included in GPA" where applicable Remedial Work Required. Utilized by the Cumming School of Medicine (MD program). Carries no weight in calculating the grade point average. This will be noted in the calendar description as "Not Included in GPA" where applicable.
	3.30 3.00 2.70 2.30 2.00 1.70 1.30 0.00

- A grade of "C-" or below may not be sufficient for promotion or graduation, see specific faculty regulations.
- The number of "D" and "D+" grades acceptable for credit is subject to specific undergraduate faculty promotional policy.

A+	95-100%
Α	90-94

Academic accommodation

Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor.

The full policy on Student Accommodations is available

Academic integrity,	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and plagiarism	honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

	 based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance. 4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from the time the Box Office opens until 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time. 6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.
