Course description	Intro to on-camera technique &amp; creation of the solo show: Drama 509 is the culmination of a series of advanced acting courses in drama. Students engage in the integration and embodiment of creative and technical resources while acquiring methodologies for advanced research in performance practice. The focus on individual skills in these modules will be balanced by attention to selected collaborative practice. This course will be strongly orientated toward professional performance technique including on-camera work and the creation of original solo work. Outside class rehearsals and performances are requirements for this course.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Demonstrate and employ a range of techniques and strategies for exploring on-camera performance.</li> <li>● Demonstrate an understanding of the basics of self-producing and web-series work for the actor and its role in the Canadian context for the self-employed artist.</li> <li>● Employ a range of research methodologies for creation of original performance as well as the interpretation of texts/prompts that address character and the environment to illuminate the acting process.</li> <li>● Demonstrate skillfulness in the application of body, breath, and other techniques that add to the fulfillment of the actor’s craft.</li> <li>● Master expectations for both personal and shared rehearsal, including generation of devised material for solo work as well as the interpretation of texts representing a range of styles and modes.</li> <li>● Practice strategies for reflection and self-assessment that support artistic practice.</li> </ul>
Course schedule	Specific Assignment Deadlines to be presented on Day One of each Module
Assessment components	Module #1: Intro to On-Camera &amp; the Pitch (Value 30%)  Class Dates: Sept. 7 - Oct. 3  This module offers students the skills to approach a given scene (sides) with the understanding of performance, story, character, relationship, and technical skills to do on-camera auditioning and acting on-set, and an introduction into creating and pitching their own independent film/series as content-creators. Assessment Method:  Assignment #1: Presentation of Set of Scenes/Mock Auditions:  Weight: 20%  Due Date: 2 to 3 sets for the duration of the module  Description: Finding Freedom and Authenticity for the Actor - Engagement and implementation of these skills (10%)  Deciphering of SIDES - story arc, beats, character development, relationships, environment, tone and style of project - stylized approach (5%)  Technique of working on camera, and auditioning - technical approach (5%)  Assignment #2: One Sheet - Pitch for a Web-Series or Short Film  Weight: 10%  Due Date: On the last day of this module.  Description: Delivery of One-Sheet (outline will be provided) with clarity of concept, synopsis, target audience and demographic  Team Building and Collaboration Module #2: Solo Show (Iterative)  Class Dates: Oct. 5 - Dec. 7  Value 70%  Concept Development / Presentation 10%  Due Date: Oct. 17  This written document will outline a performance structure within the first third of our time together. Idea Development will include thematic considerations, stylistic choices, and potential ideas towards informing the Solo Performance. These ideas

	will be presented verbally to the class and should be justifiable within a student’s chosen theme. Material Development / Presentation 20%  Material development will give (at least) two opportunities to perform and present the development of ideas to the class in the middle third of our time together. These development opportunities may include spoken monologue/dialogue, physical development ideas, or interactive trials. Each presentation will be accompanied by a written document that outlines the intent of the presentation (beforehand) and a reflection of the presentation (afterwards). Outside Eye Observation 10%  Due Date: Nov. 23  Each student will be assigned to serve as a dramaturgical support for the Idea and Material Development of one other student. In this written document, students will offer feedback and reflections for one of their classmates. This feedback will draw on ideas of a critique and response. This element is pivotal in understanding the construction of performances from another artistic angle. Final Showing 15%  Dec. 7th in class, and again as part of the Performance Marathon on Dec. 9th.  An artistic presentation of the material created throughout this module. Students should be able to demonstrate ideas, formulas, and techniques described in class in a clearly organized, artistic manner. Final Showings should only use technical elements that can be run by the performer - without outside technical assistance. A more detailed breakdown of the Final Showing will be presented during the term. Growth / Participation 15%  Participation will include logistics such as arriving on time, and being focused and present during class time, but will also encompass the less tangible elements of bravery, fortitude, and resilience. Students will be expected to demonstrate safe practices for themselves and their classmates and are encouraged to express their needs throughout this class. Students will self-assess their work, effort and growth throughout the class through a written reflection (1500-2000 words).  Due Date: Dec. 12
Assessment expectations	Guidelines for Submitting Assignment  Assignment deadlines will be established and communicated on Day 1 of the module. Missed or Late Assignments:  All units and components must be completed in order to receive a pass for this course. Should a student be unable to complete a unit due to personal circumstances, these must be discussed with the instructor Attendance and Participation Expectations:  This course is developmental, experiential and collaborative in nature and therefore attendance is mandatory. Without prior notice to the instructor, lateness or absence will negatively impact the participation grade. When the absence affects a collaborative process, the deduction will increase. Please inform the instructor of any extenuating circumstances or legitimate excuses prior to the

	class. If for a medical emergency, the student must be late or absent from class, they MUST ADVISE THE INSTRUCTOR BY EMAIL OR PHONE CALL well before the start of class. Acceptance of all excuses is at the discretion of the instructor. Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Guidelines for Zoom Sessions	Zoom is a video conferencing program that will allow us to meet at specific times for a “live” video conference, so that we can have the opportunity to meet each other virtually and discuss relevant course topics as a learning community. To help ensure Zoom sessions are private, do not share the Zoom link or password with others, or on any social media platforms. Zoom links and passwords are only intended for students registered in the course. Zoom recordings and materials presented in Zoom, including any teaching materials, must not be shared, distributed or published without the instructor’s permission. The use of video conferencing programs relies on participants to act ethically, honestly and with integrity; and in accordance with the principles of fairness, good faith, and respect (as per the Code of Conduct). When entering Zoom or other video conferencing sessions (such as MS Teams), you play a role in helping create an effective, safe and respectful learning environment. Please be mindful of how your behaviour in these sessions may affect others. Participants are required to use names officially associated with their UCID (legal or preferred names listed in the Student Centre) when engaging in these activities. Instructors/moderators can remove those whose names do not appear on class rosters. Non-compliance may be investigated under relevant University of Calgary conduct policies (e.g Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy). If participants have difficulties complying with this requirement, they should email the instructor of the class explaining why, so the instructor may consider whether to grant an exception, and on what terms. For more information on how to get the most out of your zoom sessions visit: https://elearn.ucalgary.ca/guidelines-for-zoom/. If you are unable to attend a Zoom session, please contact your instructor to arrange an alternative activity for the missed session (e.g., to review a recorded session). Please be prepared, as best as you are able, to join class in a quiet space that will allow you to be fully present and engaged in Zoom sessions. Students will be advised by their instructor when they are expected to turn on their webcam (for group work, presentations, etc.).

	The instructor may record online Zoom class sessions for the purposes of supporting student learning in this class – such as making the recording available for review of the session or for students who miss a session. Students will be advised before the instructor initiates a recording of a Zoom session. These recordings will be used to support student learning only and will not be shared or used for any other purpose.
Academic Accommodation	It is the student’s responsibility to request academic accommodations according to the University policies and procedures listed below. The Student Accommodations policy is available at https://ucalgary.ca/student-services/access/prospective-students/academic-accommodations. Students needing an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS) in accordance with the Procedure for Accommodations for Students with Disabilities (https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Accommodation-for-Students-with-Disabilities-Procedure.pdf). Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework or to fulfill requirements for a graduate degree, based on a Protected Ground other than Disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit www.ucalgary.ca/access/.
Academic integrity, plagiarism	Academic Misconduct refers to student behavior which compromises proper assessment of a student’s academic activities and includes: cheating; fabrication; falsification; plagiarism; unauthorized assistance; failure to comply with an instructor’s expectations regarding conduct required of students completing academic assessments in their courses; and failure to comply with exam regulations applied by the Registrar. For information on the Student Academic Misconduct Policy and Procedure please visit: https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Student-Academic-Misconduct-Policy.pdf and https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Student-Academic-Misconduct-Procedure.pdf. Internet and electronic communication device	The use of laptop and mobile devices is acceptable when used in a manner appropriate to the course and classroom activities. Please refrain from accessing websites and resources that may be distracting to you or for other learners during class time. Students are responsible for being aware of the University’s Internet and email use policy, which can be found at https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Acceptable-Use-of-Electronic-Resources-and-Information-Policy.pdf.
Intellectual Property	Course materials created by instructors (including presentations and posted notes, labs, case studies, assignments and exams) remain the intellectual property of the instructor. These materials may NOT be reproduced, redistributed or copied without the explicit consent of the instructor. The posting of course materials to third party websites such as note-sharing sites without permission is prohibited. Sharing of extracts of these course materials with other students enrolled in the course at the same time may be allowed under fair dealing.
Copyright	All students are required to read the University of Calgary policy on Acceptable Use of Material Protected by Copyright (https://www.ucalgary.ca/legal-services/sites/default/files/teams/1/Policies-Acceptable-Use-of-Material-Protected-by-Copyright-Policy.pdf) and requirements of the copyright act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/C-42/index.html) to ensure they are aware of the consequences of unauthorised sharing of course materials (including instructor notes, electronic versions of textbooks etc.). Students who use material protected by copyright in violation of this policy may be disciplined under the Non-Academic Misconduct Policy https://www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k.html .

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy	Student information will be collected in accordance with typical (or usual) classroom practice. Students' assignments will be accessible only by the authorized course faculty. Private information related to the individual student is treated with the utmost regard by the faculty at the University of Calgary.
