Assessment expectations	 Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, in this class, writing quality will be factored into evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details. Expectations for Attendance and Participation: Attendance is crucial for succeeding in this course. More than two unexcused absences will reduce your participation grade. Positive and consistent class participation is essential in lecture discussion groups and tutorials. During presentations and critiques, you are expected to participate in discussion and observe with consideration and respect. Smartphones must be on airplane mode (ie no phone calls or SMS during class). Guidelines for Formatting and Submitting Assignments Assignments for this class must be formatted and submitted using the procedures outlined on the D2L class web site. Late Assignments You are responsible for completing all reading assignments, without exception, by the day they are discussed. Assignments must be completed and posted or turned in at the time they are due, or they will be considered late. Assignments drop half a letter grade for each day they are late. Assignments more than three days late will not be accepted unless prior special permission has been granted. Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass Evaluation criteria specific to each project will be clearly identified as class progresses. Given the nature of the artistic process, grading will include subjective assessment.

honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-2.html) and are reminded that plagiarism Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Midterm and final Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period (June 28-30	Midterm and final	Final examinations may be scheduled at any time during the examination period (June 28-30 examination scheduling	for Spring 2017 term; August 18-21 for Summer 2017 term); students should therefore avoid _	making prior travel, employment, or other commitments for this period. If a student is unable to write an exam through no fault of his or her own for medical or other valid reasons, documentation must be provided and an opportunity to write the missed exam may be given. Students are encouraged to review all examination policies and procedures:

SCPA Claim Your Seat	1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program, funded by the Students' Union Quality Money, allows
Program: Student	all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Guidelines	Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge.
Guidennes	 Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc.
	3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance.
	4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from 45 minutes prior to 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket.
	5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time.
	6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.
