Course description	This seminar course will examine seminal theatrical works with an eye to dissecting, detecting and determining the characteristics and functions of protagonists. Students will be expected to read plays and critical works of plays, apply analysis, and formulate theories. Paralleling and complementing this, the course will employ a problem-solving model to examine the process of playwriting. Students will be expected to bring samples of their works-in-progress to class for scrutiny, critique, and continued development.  The course will expose students to challenges they can expect to encounter in future writing endeavors, and will allow them to examine solutions utilized by accomplished playwrights of the past and present.
Course learning outcomes	Students can be expected to further develop those skills associated with writing for the theatre: specific voice, distinct style, arresting gesture and image, structural coherence and sharp dialogue.  By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: 1. Apply more thoughtful analysis of characters in plays 2. Be able to isolate the dramatic arc of the protagonist and understand how it is connected to plot and dramatic tension. 3. Create rich, well developed protagonists.
Course schedule:	Following the allocation of particular plays that the students will investigate, the class will establish a reading and presentation schedule that will conform to the assignments presented below.

Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge.</li> <li>2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc.</li> <li>3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance.</li> <li>4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from the time the Box Office opens until 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket.</li> <li>5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time.</li> <li>6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.</li> </ol>
