COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES	University Chorus is an opportunity for all university students to be involved in a choral experience. Whether you are an experienced singer or this is your first experience, choral music offers many gifts to those who become involved: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Choral music is an art form that can provide an amateur with a glimpse of beauty that may not be accessible in ordinary daily life.</li> <li>b. Choral music is a group activity. A choral performance is always more than the sum of its parts: the individual becomes stronger through association with other voices and other sections.</li> </ol>

ASSESSMENTS (INCLUDING APPROPRIATE GRADING SCHEME)	MUPF 205/305 is a credit/non-credit course (not a graded course). MUPF 205/305 will appear on your transcript but will not count towards your GPA. As a performance course, attendance at all rehearsals and performances are required to receive credit. If you miss more than three rehearsals or one performance per semester, this could result in a non-credit allocation. If you are ill or must miss a rehearsal or performance, email your section leader before the date to receive an excused absence.

COURSE OUTLINES FOR TRANSFER CREDIT	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
DEFERRALS OF EXAMS/TERM WORK	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with your advisor if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines.
EMERGENCY EVACUATION	http://www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints
LETTER OF PERMISSION	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the UofC, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
PLAGIARISM	Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. For details see the University of Calgary Calendar. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Writing Centre (SS110) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
