Schedule Class: MWF 1:00 - 1:50
Independent studio time: 4 hours per week in the Sonic Arts Lab & IAML

Locations: 1) Monday classes in the Sonic Arts Lab AB 657
2) Wednesday & Friday classes in the Integrated Arts Media Lab AB 659

An introduction to the creative use of computers and digital media in sonic arts.

The course aim is to foster a greater awareness of our sonic environment and to develop the techniques to work with sound in the Sonic Arts Lab and the Integrated Arts Media Lab. Interdisciplinary in character, the course emphasizes artistic and technical approaches to working with audio & MIDI. Students will learn basic listening, recording, editing, audio processing and other hands-on studio techniques. Selected soundscape, radiophonic and sound art works will be studied; for the final project, students will create an original sonic arts composition or installation.

The course comprises:

- 1) Study of different approaches and cultural traditions relating to sound and soundscape
- 2) Essential listening and analysis skills; field and studio recording techniques
- 3) Audio editing and processing using Amadeus Pro, Audacity, GarageBand and Logic Pro
- 4) Audio and MIDI editing and sequencing using GarageBand, Logic Pro and other software
- 5) Study and analysis of selected sonic art works

Grading:	Five assignments	40%
	Two tests: Friday October 6, Friday November 17	30%
	Group project (webpage & presentation): Nov 22, 24	10%
	Final project & presentation: Dec 4 - 8	20%

Final Project: In consultation with the instructor, students will complete a multi-channel Logic Pro project and present it in class.

Class participation includes presentation of assignments, listening to repertoire, discussion of course topics and regular work in individual and class labs.

Late assignments will lose 10% of the grade and will not be accepted if more than a week late.

Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require

	an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf
Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge. 2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc. 3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance. 4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from the time the Box Office opens until 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket. 5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time. 6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.

Course outlines for transfer credit	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
Letter of permission	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
