COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES	Continuing instruction in instrumental and vocal composition techniques. Various compositional techniques and approaches to writing for small instrumental and vocal ensembles will be explored through audition and analysis of contemporary repertoire and the composition of short compositional etudes. A final composition project and performance are required. The objectives of the course include the acquisition and development of compositional skills and techniques as well as the development of critical listening and analytical skills and familiarity with representative contemporary repertoire.
COURSE ACTIVITIES	Weekly presentation of clear and legible work-in-progress, active involvement in class discussions and presentations, as well as attendance at selected concerts, readings, and rehearsals. Students are responsible for finding musicians and working closely with them to prepare pieces for the final composition project performance. Date for a final composition recital TBA.
COURSE CONTENT	Weekly analysis and composition studies; composition readings, final composition project and performance

CAMPUS SECURITY	220-5333. Help phones: located throughout campus, parking lots, and elevators. They connect directly to Campus Security; in case of emergency, press the red button.
COURSE OUTLINES FOR TRANSFER CREDIT	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
DEFERRALS OF EXAMS/TERM WORK	It is possible to request a deferral of term work or final examinations for reasons of illness, accident, family or domestic affliction, or religious obligations. Please check with your advisor if any of these issues make it impossible for you to sit an exam or finish term work by stated deadlines.
EMERGENCY EVACUATION	http://www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/assemblypoints

LETTER OF PERMISSION	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
PLAGIARISM	Using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it is a serious academic offense. For details see the University of Calgary Calendar. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3 rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.
