Out of class activities	Observation of four studio master classes given by Dr. Hynes and/or Dr. Hrynkiw, documented in journal form.
Learning resources: required readings, textbooks and materials	Class Materials in the form of both hand outs and reading materials will be provided. Additional library resources will be required to include books, videos etc. A Reading List will be provided at the beginning of the term.
Prerequisites	Admission to the BMus or BA(Music) Program and consent of the Division Chair, Music.
Supplementary fees	None
Course description	This course will provide learners with an historical overview of vocal pedagogical practices from the most influential masters of the past. Emphasis will be on the relevance of those techniques and how to apply them for excellent vocal production in the teaching of singing today.
Course learning outcomes	By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: 1. Speak knowledgeably about masters of singing from the past, including from The Old Italian School of Singing. 2. Define and develop an individualized methodology relating to their teaching of singing. 3. Better appreciate the myriad of teaching methods and decipher excellent practices and habits versus otherwise. Begin to discern how to identify and correct possible vocal problems. 4. Further able to understand current trends in vocal pedagogy including the area of vocal science, body mapping/anatomy etc. 5. Gain an appreciation for the 'art' of teaching singing.
Course schedule	TBA in class
Assessment components	Value: 50% Due date: Twice weekly Each class will include a student led discussion of specific readings given by the Instructor. A Reading List will be provided at the beginning of the term and suggestions for possible areas of discussion given in advance. The first ten minutes of each class will discuss any questions or comments arising from the previous class.  Students will be required to present a summary of various readings either separately or in pairs. A class schedule and directions of what is expected will be provided at the beginning of the term.  Value: 20%

	Due Date: (as described in “Out of Class Activities,” above) A Journal will be kept noting observations at studio master classes, questions and ponderings related to the readings etc. Discussions relating to readings and class notes and summaries should be a part of the journaling to assist in formulating research for the final project. Value: 30% Date: end of semester, date TBA An Annotated Bibliography will be kept and the term end Project completed as culmination of each student’s development of a methodology for teaching based upon the work of the term. Details will be given at the beginning of the term. This project will be presented to the class at the end of the term.
Assessment expectations	Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass Students will be expected to rotate in leading class discussions based upon the readings. A brief summary of books and individual class presentations will be required to facilitate getting through the large amount of reading material required. The final grade will be calculated as follows: Completion of a Journal; An Annotated Bibliography and Final Project; as well as meeting the above expectations for Class Participation. Expectations for Writing: Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Academic accommodation	Students seeking an accommodation based on disability or medical concerns should contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS); SAS will process the request and issue letters of accommodation to instructors. For additional information on support services and accommodations for students with disabilities, visit ucalgary.ca/access/. Students who require an accommodation in relation to their coursework based on a protected ground other than disability should communicate this need in writing to their Instructor. The full policy on Student Accommodations is available at ucalgary.ca/policies/files/policies/student-accommodation-policy.pdf
Academic integrity, plagiarism	The University of Calgary is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other people’s words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your instructor or the Student Success Centre (TFDL 3rd Floor) if you have any questions regarding how to document sources.

SCPA Claim Your Seat Program: Student Guidelines	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Claim Your Seat (CYS) program allows all University of Calgary students to attend on-campus School of Creative and Performing Arts (Dance, Drama and Music) events free of charge.</li> <li>2. Depending on the performance, there is a limited number of seats available for CYS. There is not a guarantee that tickets will be available for all CYS patrons for every performance, based on audience size, demand, etc.</li> <li>3. CYS tickets are a privilege. If a student receives a ticket to attend a performance, it is expected that they will respect the value of the admission and attend the performance.</li> <li>4. Process for students: On the date of the performance, from the time the Box Office opens until 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they arrive to the CYS table next to the Box Office and show their Unicard. If students arrive after 15 minutes prior to the performance start time, they can go to the Box Office and purchase a ticket at the student rate. Students should not go to the Box Office unless they are purchasing a ticket.</li> <li>5. If students have a course requirement to attend a performance for a specific date, access to the tickets will be communicated by the instructor to University Theatre Services prior to the event. The best guarantee for a free ticket is to arrive early, up to 45 minutes prior to the performance start time.</li> <li>6. Respect for the Front of House and theatre staff, performers and fellow patrons is an absolute requirement. Failure to comply with this will lead to being asked to leave the venue and could result in the revoking of CYS privileges.</li> </ol>

Course outlines for transfer credit	It is possible that you will be asked for copies of this outline for credit transfers to other institutions or for proof of work done. It is the student's responsibility to keep these outlines and provide them to employers or other universities when requested. Please ensure that outlines of all the courses you take are kept in a safe place for your future reference. Departments/Programs do not guarantee that they will provide copies.
Letter of permission	If you wish to study at another institution while registered at the U of C, you must have a letter of permission. You can submit your request through your Student Centre at MyUofC. Students must have the Letter of Permission before they take the course at another school. Failure to prepare may result in no credit awarded and could result in suspension from the faculty.
