| Course description | This course offers a practical workshop in ancient Greek Chorus, ensemble | | | |
| | performance, and classical adaptation for contemporary contexts. Using a fully | | | |
| | interdisciplinary approach incorporating dance, music, and drama, this class will | | | |
| | explore an adaptation of a new translation of The Suppliant Women by Aeschylus and | | | |
| | develop students' understanding of classical approaches to theatre making. | | | |
| Course learning | By the completion of this course, successful students will be able to: | | | |
| outcomes | 1. Demonstrate knowledge of the social, historical, and dramatic function of the chorus | | | |
| | in ancient drama and its role in contemporary theatre practice as it has been adapted. | | | |
| | 2. Cultivate a performance practice informed by classical convention with a focus on | | | |
| | contemporary application. | | | |
| | 3. Improvise collaboratively on a theme with multidisciplinary performers. | | | |
| | 4. Integrate skills learned in class to students' individual artistic practice. | | | |
| Course schedule | Details will be given in-class. | | | |

must follow MLA guidelines.

Assessment expectations

Guidelines for Submitting Assignments

The nature of this class is performance based therefore most assignments will be completed in class although some refinement of in-class material may need to occur outside of class as homework.

Criteria That Must Be Met To Pass

Students must complete all assignments and participate in the final Group Presentation to pass this course.

Expectations for Writing:

Writing skills are important to academic study across all disciplines. Consequently, instructors may use their assessment of writing quality as a factor in the evaluation of student work. Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.2 Writing Across the Curriculum policy for details.

Guidelines for Formatting Assignments

See MLA formatting guidelines.

Late Assignments

Late assignments will be down-graded one letter grade per day late. That is to say work that would be evaluated at an A will be down-graded to an F after six days late. Due to the collaborative nature of group work/performance, missed performances are the responsibility of the student and their group

Expectations for Attendance and Participation:

Please refer to the Undergraduate Calendar E.3 Attendance for details.

- A significant part of your grade is based on participation. Participation means not only showing up for class, but also attending to the material at hand with effort and engagement.
- With regard to participation, classes are considered equivalent to assignments.

- Thus, more than 1 absence per course will have an adverse effect on your final grade.
- If you miss more than one day of classes, your final grade will begin to drop by as much as 10% per missed class.
- If you miss more than two days of classes, you have the potential to fail the course.
- If you show up late for or leave early from class, this will be counted as half an absence.
- If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege more than once and you will receive half an absence.
- For studio courses, if you opt out of full participation and choose to sit for a portion of the class, this will be counted as non-participation and will be marked as half an absence.
- Students are responsible for any and all material missed during an absence.
- Due to the experiential nature of this course, classes are equivalent to assignment. Therefore, classes missed will be detrimental to the final grade. More than two missed classes will result in a fail for the course.

FOR GRADED DANCE STUDIO COURSES

- A significant part of your grade is based on participation. Participation means not only showing up for class, but also attending to the material at hand with effort and engagement.
- With regard to participation, classes are considered equivalent to assignments.
 Thus, more than 1, 2, or 3 (fill in based on how many times the class meets per week) absences per term will have an adverse effect on your final grade.
- If you miss more than one week of classes, your final grade will begin to drop by as much as 10% per missed class.
- If you miss more than two weeks of classes, you have the potential to fail the course.
- If you show up late for or leave early from class, this will be counted as half an absence.
- If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege more than once and you will receive half an absence.
- For studio courses, if you opt out of full participation and choose to sit for a portion of the class, this will be counted as non-participation and will be marked as half an absence.
- Students are responsible for any and all material missed during an absence.
- If you sustain a significant injury during the term that will impact your participation for longer than a week's worth of classes and if this injury is verified by a medical practitioner's note, your case will be submitted to the Dance Division Committee to address your situation.

FOR PASS/FAIL DNCE COURSES

- Due to the experiential nature of this course, classes are equivalent to assignment. Therefore, classes missed will be detrimental to the final grade. More than four (4) missed classes will result in a fail for the course.
- If you show up late for or leave early from class two (2) times, this will be counted as a full class absence.
- If for some reason you are feeling unwell during class time, a substitute form of participation may be arranged; however, you may not obtain this privilege

| piagiarism | and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are referred to the section |
| | on plagiarism in the University Calendar (ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-3.html ; |
| | ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/k-5.html) and are reminded that plagiarism—using any |
| | source whatsoever without clearly documenting it—is an extremely serious academic offence. |
| | Consequences include failure on the assignment, failure in the course and possibly suspension |
| | or expulsion from the university. You must document not only direct quotations but also |
| | paraphrases and ideas where they appear in your text. A reference list at the end is insufficient |
| | by itself. Readers must be able to tell exactly where your words and ideas end and other |
| | people's words and ideas begin. This includes assignments submitted in non-traditional formats |
| | such as Web pages or visual media, and material taken from such sources. Please consult your |
