DESCRIPTION

Welcome to French 209! This is a 3-credit semester course for students who are beginners in French. Particular emphasis is placed on oral/aural communication, writing skills and strategies to read efficiently in French. In addition, students are introduced to French and francophone cultures through readings and exercises integrated with the materials used for language acquisition. Emphasis is on developing students' communicative competence in preparation for further study. The course is based on the textbook Promenades (2nd edition) accompanied by a workbook and computerized activities posted on the Supersite. In this course, we will cover units 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Prerequisites

Students with previous knowledge of French whose linguistic proficiency is beyond that of a beginner or near-beginner should not enrol in French 209 and may be instructed to register in another course.

OBJECTIVES

Basic elements of the French language will be covered, including training in comprehension, speaking, reading and writing of French.

OUTCOMES

Outcomes in language courses are usually measured in terms of five basic skills:

Listening: you will be able to ...

- understand audio and video material which accompanies the textbook as well as simple conversations.
- understand a variety of communicative situations presented in elementary but authentic French.

Speaking: you will be able to ...

- ask and answer simple questions using basic vocabulary concerning immediate surroundings.
- introduce yourself, talk about likes and dislikes, state your age, introduce your family, express your feelings, describe your city, talk about your studies and everyday activities.
- pronounce sounds of French correctly, as well as recognize and imitate essential intonation and rhythmic patterns of the language.

Reading: you will be able to ...

- read authentic French texts (up to 300 words in length) containing vocabulary studied in class as well as a number of cognates
- understand the main ideas in simple authentic material (brochures, advertisement)
- apply some reading strategies (identifying cognates, scanning, dealing with unfamiliar words, predicting, activating background knowledge).

School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

Writing: you will be able to ...

- write simple texts (up to 200 words in length) and give information about yourself, your relatives and your friends, and to narrate events grounded in personal experience.
- write short compositions accurately using vocabulary, grammatical forms and structures introduced in the course, using the present tense and the futur proche.

Culture: you will be able to ...

- differentiate between some sociolinguistic and pragmatic aspects of the language in particular the use of polite/familiar forms and basic formal/informal spoken and written speech patterns
- appreciate the similarities and the differences between Francophone cultures and your own culture, in terms of behaviour, attitudes and values in contexts such as the family, university studies, work, leisure and food.

COURSE NOTES

1. The information on the course outline posted on D2L and on the SLLLC website is not binding and can change according to the needs of the class.
2. Classroom Etiquette: practicing a foreign language entails taking risks and allowing yourself to be vulnerable in front of other people. You are used to being able to speak at a much more sophisticated level in your native language, so working in French is not always easy. For this reason, it is essential to establish an atmosphere of mutual respect in the classroom. Please be attentive and listen not only to your instructor but also to your classmates when they speak. Please mute your cell phone during class. Be on time for classes: tests and dictations will not be repeated for latecomers.
3. To derive the utmost benefit of instruction, daily attendance is essential. Attending class is extremely beneficial to hear and speak French, to interact with others and to receive instant feedback from your instructor and your peers. The instructor should be informed of any reason for prolonged absence.

Faculty of Arts

School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

4. Attendance: A student who is absent from a test for legitimate reasons must discuss an alternative course of action with the instructor. Your instructor will either make this decision on the basis of verbal information provided by the student or will request a Physician/ Counsellor statement form to confirm an absence for health reasons. Missed tests, oral presentation and dictées with no legitimate reason will be given a grade of F. The instructor will not prepare make-up tests or assignments.
5. There is no mid-term examination and no final examination, but all tests are cumulative.
6. Labs start on Monday May 14, 2018. The labs are an integral part of this course. They are mandatory, and attendance will be taken. Oral participation in the labs will be assessed for consideration of the final grade. An oral presentation will be required as an element of the laboratory work. The topic and the rubrics of the oral presentation are posted on D2L, on the tentative schedule. Please bring your lab manual to the lab. Written and comprehension exercises will be done in the lab on a regular basis.
7. Students are expected to check the D2L page on a regular basis for announcements, homework, assignments, marks and the tentative schedule.
8. Students are advised to read the excerpt on PLAGIARISM.
9. Grading Rubrics
 - a. Dictations (2 x 10%=20%)

Dictations are spelling tests. Your instructor prepares a paragraph of 100 words and reads it to you very slowly so you can write every word and punctuation. There is no memorization necessary and there are no questions to answer at the end of the test. Dictées are designed to verify your understanding of sounds, words, phrases, grammar and syntax. When grading dictations, one mark is taken away for each of the following: spelling, verb agreement, adjective agreement, noun agreement, capital letters and all omissions. (Half a mark for accents, hyphens, capital letters and punctuation). To prepare for dictations, listen to the chapter vocabulary on the Promenades Supersite, read chapter vocabulary aloud paying attention to accents and liaisons, spell each new noun with its article, and write down each verb with its conjugation. In French 209, each dictation is worth 10%, and dates are posted on the tentative schedule.
 - b. Tests (30% + 10%=40%)

Tests are based on unit material and are divided into several sections. They may include listening comprehension, reading comprehension, grammar questions, vocabulary questions, transformations... Each section is presented with detailed instructions as well as the mark value and the weight. Each test contains a composition. A few days before each test, your instructor will post the format of the test on D2L or send it through email to all students. In French 209, each test is worth 20% of the final mark, and dates are posted on the tentative schedule.
 - c. Oral presentation (in Lab) (10%)

Oral presentations are designed to give you a chance to practice French orally. A topic is already posted on D2L with the marking rubrics (content, grammar, syntax, varied vocabulary, pronunciation (including prosody, accentuation, rhythm and liaisons), speech delivery, props, creativity and effort). Your oral presentation will take place in the lab. You will do your oral presentation with a partner, but individual marks will be granted. No reading is allowed. Only index cards with key words may be used. A penalty of -25% will apply to all oral presentations read to the audience. Please print the rubrics posted on D2L and give them to your lab instructor on the day of your presentation. In French 209, the oral presentation is worth 5%. Please choose a date for your oral presentation the second week of classes during your lab.
 - d. Online Quizzes (4 x 5%=20%)

There are four (4) online quizzes posted on D2L and available immediately and until Sunday June 24, 2018 @ 11:55PM. Each quiz corresponds to one of the 4 units covered during the semester (Promenades Units 1, 2, 3 and 4) and consists in 100 self-correcting questions. Use your book, answer all questions and submit your quiz. Your grade will appear immediately, but you will not see your answers. If you want to see your quizzes, make an appointment with your Instructor. To access the 4 quizzes, enter D2L French 209, click on "Assessments" --- "Quizzes" ---- "Start Quiz". You are allowed unlimited attempts for all 4 quizzes.

Faculty of Arts

School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

Your highest grade will count.

There is no time restriction to do the quizzes, but final submission date is June 24.

You will respond to 100 questions randomly drawn.

You may start the quiz, save all your responses, stop it and resume it later.

There are 3 kinds of questions: Fill in the Blanks, Multiple choice, and True/False.

You will need to access the Supersite to complete the "Comprehension" questions.

If your computer is not equipped with French accents and cedilla, you will be able to cut and paste them from the top of the quiz page.

Precise spelling is required.

You will see all questions on the same page.

You may go back to any question and make changes until you submit your quiz.

Make sure to submit your 4 quizzes before Sunday June 24 @ 11:55 PM.

e. Lab and Class Participation (10%)

Active participation in lab and class is worth 10% of your final mark. Attendance is crucial. You need to come prepared for class and exercises must be done in advance. Grading rubrics for oral participation are posted on D2L.

10. How to enhance your French class?

- Use the Supersite regularly to review vocabulary, and do online exercises.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:

a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);

b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;

c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or

d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted."

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

WRITING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

Writing skills should cross all disciplines. Students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their courses and, where appropriate, instructors can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Centre in the Effective Writing Office (<http://www.efwr.ucalgary.ca/>) can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.
