DESCRIPTION

Se voulant la suite du cours FREN 225, le cours de français 227 propose aux étudiants.tes une étude approfondie de la grammaire française par le biais, a) d'exposés magistraux et d'exercices d'apprentissage et, b) d'études de textes littéraires.

OBJECTIVES

Plus précisément, ce cours portera sur certaines parties clefs du discours, notamment le pronom et le verbe, et traitera également de la conjugaison, tant celle des verbes réguliers que celle des verbes irréguliers, en plus de s'arrêter sur les temps et modes suivants : l'indicatif, le conditionnel, l'impératif et le subjonctif. Aussi, ce cours portera sur d'autres parties du discours, telles que l'adverbe, la préposition, la conjonction et l'interjection en plus de proposer une révision analytique complète des propositions subordonnées.

La bonne marche de ce cours et l'atteinte de ces objectifs exigent que les étudiants.tes prennent en charge leur apprentissage ce qui veut dire, en clair : une participation active à toutes les séances magistrales ainsi qu'aux ateliers de travaux pratiques, une étude quotidienne sérieuse de la matière vue dans ce cours, la fréquentation du Centre français.

STRUCTURE

Le cours comporte deux volets complémentaires et obligatoires : des leçons et des exercices donnés en classe et des ateliers de répétition et d'approfondissement donnés par le Centre français. Ces TP ne sont pas facultatifs : ils sont obligatoires et nécessaires pour la réussite des objectifs de ce cours.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:
a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);
b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted."

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. Students with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre should contact their office at 220-8237. WRITING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

Writing skills should cross all disciplines. Students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their courses and, where appropriate, instructors can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Centre in the Effective Writing Office (<http://www.efwr.ucalgary.ca/>) can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.
