COURSE TITLE

Le romantisme et l'existentialisme : deux conceptions singulières du héros.

Winter 2017

COURSE OUTLINE

INSTRUCTOR'S NAME and E-MAIL : Marie-Louise Brice (mlbrice @ucalgary.ca) OFFICE LOCATION and HOURS : CHE 206. TR 11:00 –12:00 TELEPHONE NUMBER : 403-220-2147 COORDINATOR'S NAME and E-MAIL : Anthony J. Wall (awall@ucalgary.ca)
DESCRIPTION Ce cours porte sur deux moments majeurs de la littérature française : le courant romantique, au début du dix-neuvième siècle, et le courant existentialiste, datant du milieu du vingtième siècle. Le premier moment sera abordé à travers René , de François-René de Chateaubriand. Nous étudierons le second courant à partir du roman non moins emblématique d'Albert Camus : L'Étranger . L'Abrégé Guide des notions littéraires soutiendra notre lecture tout au long du travail.
OBJECTIVES Dans ce séminaire, nos objectifs seront tout autant de nous initier aux concepts littéraires caractérisant ces deux courants, qu'à deux styles d'écritures très particuliers : l'écriture blanche de Camus et la poétique romanesque de Chateaubriand. Au terme du cours, l'étudiant sera en mesure de retracer les profils des héros romantique et existentialiste, de les comparer pour saisir ce qui les rapproche et ce qui les différencie.

RECOMMENDED TEXTS AND MATERIALS

D'autres documents (photocopies et textes sur D2L) seront mis à la disposition des étudiant(e)s en cours de semestre pour soutenir la compréhension des ouvrages abordés.

COURSE NOTES

Late assignments and missed tests policy : une déduction de 10% par jour de retard sera appliquée aux travaux remis après la date limite ; un examen ne pourra être repris que sur la présentation d'une note écrite par un médecin ou en cas d'un empêchement justifié par une raison grave.

- Electronic submission of assignments: tous les travaux devront être remis en copie papier ; les travaux envoyés au professeur en format électronique ne seront pas acceptés.

- The Department's drop-box, located in the foyer area of the third floor in Craigie Hall between blocks D and C, is available for depositing assignments and course work. The material placed in the drop-box will be collected and date-stamped at the beginning and at the end of the working day.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:

- the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);
- parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
- the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
- a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted." Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

WRITING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

Writing skills should cross all disciplines. Students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their courses and, where appropriate, instructors can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Centre in the Effective Writing Office (<http://www.efwr.ucalgary.ca/>) can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.
