PREREQUISITE

Enrollment in any higher level Japanese course requires a grade of at least "C-" in JPNS205, or consent of the School.

COURSE DESCRIPTION AND GOAL

JPNS207 is a second course of our Japanese Program, continuing from JPNS205. This course (JPNS207) covers Lesson 7 to Lesson 12 of Genki I (The Japan Times) textbook. After successfully completing this course, students will be able to:

- Handle simple situations dealing with basic personal and family information.
- Express thoughts and opinions regarding simple daily life.
- Talk about and comment on past events; hold a basic conversation on future plans.
- Present a 10-minute performance, based on familiar topics by using relevant vocabulary, and entertain the audience.
- Recognize 87 additional Kanji, and learn 145 Kanji in total.

Since our courses are focused on oral communication skills, students who complete Beginners' Japanese courses (JPNS205 and JPNS207) can speak simple Japanese everyday phrases and play a good role as icebreaker to ease communication in various occasions, such as business meetings with Japanese speakers. Also, students will be able to deal with everyday incidents while traveling in Japan and to enjoy numerous interactions with local people in Japan.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:

- a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one’s own in an examination or test);
- b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
- c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
- d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

Faculty of Arts
School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted.” Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student’s work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students’ examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

WRITING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

Writing skills should cross all disciplines. Students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their courses and, where appropriate, instructors can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Centre in the Effective Writing Office (<http://www.efwr.ucalgary.ca/>) can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.
