DESCRIPTION

This course will introduce students to the cultures of France, Italy and Spain through a variety of topics such as history, geography, economy, the arts and other specific cultural issues of each country. Over the centuries, these three nations have had a great influence on the development of other cultures and by learning about them we will gain important insights of North American civilization.

DISTRIBUTION OF GRADES

4 Tests (35%;35%;15%;10% )	95 %
Attendance	5%

There will be no final examination

GRADING SCALE

A+ = 100-96	A = 95-91	A- = 90-86	B+ = 85-81	B = 80-76	B- = 75-71
C+ = 70-67	C = 66- 62	C- = 61-58	D+ = 57-54	D = 53-50	F = 49%

The official grading system (A=4, B=3, C=2, D=1) will be applied for the calculation of the final mark

RECOMMENDED TEXTS AND MATERIALS

No textbook is required. This course has a blackboard site where notes and information will be posted.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Students will gain basic insights into the history, society, culture, and religion of France, Italy and Spain.
2. Students will gain cultural awareness by analyzing a base of factual knowledge about each of the three Mediterranean cultures.
3. Students will critically analyze the topics presented and compare how some of the cultural values of three European civilizations relate to each other and to their own culture.

COURSE NOTES

All classes are conducted in English.

Classroom lectures will be supplemented with a variety of information sources such as guest speakers, videos and music. Students attendance is strongly recommended as many of the cultural features presented in class cannot be entirely valued from lecture notes alone. Lack of attendance will adversely affect your overall performance and will have an impact on your final grade.

Attendance at all examinations is compulsory. Missed tests will be given a grade of F. A student who is absent from an exam for legitimate reasons must inform the instructor immediately and an alternative course of action may be considered.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:
  - a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);

- b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
  - c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
  - d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.
- While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted."

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

DISABILITIES AND ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. Students with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre should contact their office at 220-8237. Students who have not registered with the Disability Resource Centre are not eligible for formal academic accommodation. Students also required to discuss their needs with the instructor no later than fourteen (14) days after the start of this course.
