Ensayo:

escrito a máquina a doble espacio, sin espacios entre párrafos. Favor de usar una letra de impresión de por lo menos 12 "caracteres por pulgada" (characters per inch), las reglas del MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers y 250 palabras por página. Si deseas incluir notas, deben ser en adición al número mínimo de palabras.

Al escribir sobre una película debes usar una de las teorías estudiadas en el curso. También debes incluir análisis del contexto específico y análisis de secuencia para cada sección subtemática del ensayo. Es posible comparar dos filmes, pero el análisis debe ser suficientemente delimitado para que sea profundo. Ver el carnet para las fechas de perfeccionamiento y de entrega.

La primera parte deberá tener una longitud de 2000 palabras (8 páginas). El ensayo final deberá contar con un número mínimo de 3750 palabras (15 páginas, máximo 17 págs.). El número mínimo de Obras citadas, es de 6 fuentes académicas de revistas especializadas o capítulos de libros. Aunque se pueden usar bases de datos como JSTOR o Worldcat, no se aceptan fuentes de internet no académicas (Wikipedia y/o información de Google y motores de búsqueda similares no son aceptables).

Este trabajo debe incluir una lista de Obras citadas (usadas) de todos los textos parafraseados, o utilizados para apoyar una idea/tesis original. Para indicar estas fuentes, favor de usar el MLA (cualquier edición impresa. No se aceptan las ediciones en línea). Para indicar la fuente de información, el estilo MLA sugiere referencias parentéticas a la bibliografía y posiblemente notas al final.

El trabajo, en sus diferentes etapas, se entregará en las fechas indicadas en el programa del curso. El trabajo, así como todas las otras actividades, será calificado teniendo en cuenta tanto la corrección de superficie (gramática, léxico-sintaxis, presentación), como la originalidad de ideas y profundidad del análisis teórico y de secuencia, el uso del MLA para la citación apropiada, el número de páginas y fuentes (no usar las del curso), y la estructura del análisis. Esta debe ser lógica, con una introducción pertinente, desarrollo con estudio de secuencias, citas, transiciones y conclusiones que no repitan ni resuman lo dicho, sino que razonen sobre las posibles implicaciones futuras de cualquier aspecto del análisis.

ATENCIÓN: aunque nuestra biblioteca es bastante completa, debes prever que no encontrarás allí todas las fuentes requeridas y que deberás hacer préstamos interbibliotecarios, los cuales pueden tomar más de tres semanas en llegar. Es tu responsabilidad hacer estos préstamos con suficiente tiempo.

COURSE NOTES

- Late assignments and missed tests policy: 10% of the grade will be deducted for each day any written assignment is late if there is no appropriate documentation to justify the absence or the failure to complete it. After 5 days, assignments will not be accepted. Failure to attend class on the day of an exam will result in an F unless the student has legitimate reasons. The instructor may request a Physician/ Counselor statement form to confirm an absence for health reasons. A student who is absent from a test for legitimate reasons must discuss promptly an alternative course of action with the professor.

- Electronic submission of assignments: Electronic submission of your written work does not substitute for hardcopies. Hardcopies must be submitted on the dates in our class schedule.

-The essay must study a Latin American film (if you do not know the origin of a film, go to www.imdb.com or ask the professor). It must also use a performance theory and study a current issue in Latin America.

- The Department's drop-box, located in the foyer area of the third floor in Craigie Hall between blocks D and C, is available for depositing assignments and course work. The material placed in the drop-box will be collected and date-stamped at the beginning and at the end of the working day.

-The information on the course schedule posted on BB is not binding and can change according to the needs of the class. Please print/scan/download this schedule and use it actively to keep on top of deadlines, readings, and assignments.

-You may see the films during the labs. Most films are in Spanish and may not have subtitles. It is strongly recommended that you complete each assigned worksheet/questions as you watch. Some films may contain strong language, violence and sex scenes. .

-Readings for this course may be in English.

-To derive the utmost benefit from instruction, daily attendance and participation are essential. Lack of attendance and unpreparedness (not reading, not watching films, not doing assignments, ...) may adversely affect your overall performance and may have a negative impact on your final grade.

-Do not make travel arrangements for the dates when exams and other assignments are scheduled. As stated above, missed assignments and examinations with no legitimate reason will be given a grade of F. Cell phones, iPods, Blackberries and similar devices are not allowed during exams.

-Please turn off your cell phones, iPods, Blackberries and similar devices during lectures and /or labs. They are particularly distracting and do not promote focused learning.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

1. Plagiarism is a serious offence, the penalty for which is an F on the assignment and possibly also an F in the course, academic probation, or requirement to withdraw. Plagiarism exists when:

- a) the work submitted or presented was done, in whole or in part, by an individual other than the one submitting or presenting the work (this includes having another impersonate the student or otherwise substituting the work of another for one's own in an examination or test);
- b) parts of the work are taken from another source without reference to the original author;
- c) the whole work (e.g., an essay) is copied from another source, and/or
- d) a student submits or presents work in one course which has also been submitted in another course (although it may be completely original with that student) without the knowledge of or prior agreement of the instructor involved.

While it is recognized that scholarly work often involves reference to the ideas, data and conclusions of other scholars, intellectual honesty requires that such references be explicitly and clearly noted."

Plagiarism occurs not only when direct quotations are taken from a source without specific acknowledgement but also when original ideas or data from the source are not acknowledged. A bibliography is insufficient to establish which portions of the student's work are taken from external sources; footnotes or other recognized forms of citation must be used for this purpose.

2. Cheating at tests or examinations includes but is not limited to dishonest or attempted dishonest conduct such as speaking to other candidates or communicating with them under any circumstances whatsoever; bringing into the examination room any textbook, notebook, memorandum, other written material or mechanical or electronic device not authorized by the examiner; writing an examination or part of it, or consulting any person or materials outside the confines of the examination room without permission to do so, or leaving answer papers exposed to view, or persistent attempts to read other students' examination papers.

3. Other academic misconduct includes, but is not limited to, tampering or attempts to tamper with examination scripts, class work, grades and/or class records; failure to abide by directions by an instructor regarding the individuality of work handed in; the acquisition, attempted acquisition, possession, and/or distribution of examination materials or information not authorized by the instructor; the impersonation of another student in an examination or other class assignment; the falsification or fabrication of clinical or laboratory reports; the non-authorized tape recording of lectures.

4. Any student who voluntarily and consciously aids another student in the commission of one of these offences is also guilty of academic misconduct.

DISABILITIES AND ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

It is the student's responsibility to request academic accommodations. Students with a documented disability who may require academic accommodation and have not registered with the Student Accessibility Services should contact their office at 220-8237. Writing skills should cross all disciplines. The services provided by the Writing Centre in the Effective Writing Office (<http://www.efwr.ucalgary.ca/>) can be utilized by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance.
