PRESENTATION DU COURS:

Une introduction à la sociologie qui adopte une approche interdisciplinaire pour analyser les rapports entre l'individu et la société. Nous étudierons les différents problèmes sociaux qui découlent de ces rapports en nous servant des concepts sociologiques de base comme l'identité, la culture, la socialisation, la déviance, la stratification sociale, les rapports ethniques, la révolution informationnelle et les rapports entre les hommes et les femmes.

PRESENTATION ORALE

Chaque étudiant(e) doit faire un exposé oral de 20 minutes sur le sujet traité dans l'article que le professeur fournira. La présentation sera suivie d'une discussion dirigée par l'étudiant(e). La présentation sera accompagnée d'au moins quatre questions à choix multiple qui portent sur le contenu de l'exposé. Veuillez fournir les réponses à vos questions aussi.

EXAMENS

Tous les examens comprendront (1) des questions à choix multiple (2) des questions à réponse courte et (3) un essai. L'examen intra no. 2 ne portera que sur les chapitres 5, 6, 7 et 8 et sur les vidéos qui les accompagnent. La plupart des questions à choix multiple sur l'examen final seront basées sur les chapitres 9, 5.4.4 et 10 et sur notre discussion de la déviance (y compris les vidéos.) En plus, inclus dans l'examen final vous trouverez des questions à choix multiple qui se rapportent au contenu des présentations orales et que l'étudiant(e) responsable de la présentation aura préparées. Cependant, le reste de l'examen final (les questions à réponse courte et l'essai) exigera une bonne connaissance de toute la matière traitée dans le manuel et présentée en classe depuis le début du cours.

L'examen final aura lieu durant la période des examens (du 13 au 22 décembre) et durera 2 heures. Le tableau suivant indique l'équivalence entre les notes allouées par lettres et celles allouées par chiffres.

Deferrals:

If at all possible you must provide advance notice to the instructor if you are unable to take a test or pass in an assignment or essay on time. All requests for deferral of a course component due to health reasons must be accompanied by written documentation as outlined in the University Calendar and should be obtained while the student has the physical or emotional problem rather than after recovery. Deferrals will be allowed in the following circumstances: illness, domestic affliction or religious conviction. Travel arrangements and misreading of the syllabus are not valid reasons for requesting a deferral. Deferrals will not be granted if it is determined that just cause is not shown by the student.

If you have missed a test for a legitimate reason, the instructor can require you to write a “make up” test as close in time to the original test as possible or can choose to transfer the percentage weight to another course component. If the instructor schedules a “make up” test for you, its date and location will be at the convenience of the Sociology Department.

Please note that requests to defer a final examination or to defer term work past the end of a term go through the Undergraduate Programs Office (UPO) and must be processed by the deadlines that are established in the U of C Calendar. You can find the forms you need online:

Deferred Term Work Form:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/files/registrar/defTW.pdf>

You must submit these deferral forms to the Faculty of Arts Associate Dean (Students) through the UPO office: Undergraduate Programs Office, 4th Floor, MacEwan Student Centre. Only the Associate Dean approves requests for deferrals which extend beyond the end of a term. Instructors are not involved in such decisions. To make an appointment with the Associate Dean, phone (403) 220-8155.

Ethics Research: Students are advised that any research with human subjects--including any interviewing (even with friends and family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation--must have the approval of the Departmental Ethics Committee. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subjects research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.

Academic Misconduct: Plagiarism, cheating and other academic misconduct are regarded as serious academic offences. Students are advised to consult the University Calendar which presents a Statement of Intellectual Honesty and definitions and penalties associated with cheating, plagiarism, and other academic misconduct.

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) legislation disallows the practice of having students retrieve assignments from a public place, e.g., outside an instructor's office or the Department main office. Written assignments must be returned to students individually, during class, or during the instructor's office hours; if a student is unable to pick up her/his assignment s/he may provide the instructor with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be used for the return of the assignment.

Safewalk: The University of Calgary provides a "safe walk" service to any location on Campus, including the LRT, parking lots, bus zones, and campus housing. For Campus Security/Safewalk call 220-5333. Campus Security can also be contacted from any of the "Help" phones located around Campus.

Academic Accommodation: Students with a disability, who require academic accommodation, need to register with the Disability Resource Centre (MC 295, phone 220-8237). Academic accommodation letters need to be provided to course instructors no later than fourteen (14) days after the first day of class. It is a student's responsibility to register with the Disability Resource Centre and to request academic accommodation, if required.

Handing in papers outside of class, return of final papers, and release of final grades:

1. When students are unable to submit papers in class, they should make arrangements to hand in their papers directly to the instructor or teaching assistant. Papers will not be accepted in the main Sociology Department office.
2. Final papers will not be returned through the main Sociology Department office. The Freedom of Information and Privacy (FOIP) legislation disallows the practice of having students retrieve assignments from a public place (i.e. outside an instructor's office, the department office etc.) Students who want their final papers returned by mail must attach a stamped, self-addressed envelope with the paper. Otherwise final papers will be available for pick-up only during the instructor's office hours at the end of this term or at the beginning of the next term.
3. Final grades are not posted by the Sociology Department. They are available only online.
