COURSE DESCRIPTION

While biological sex is an important marker of difference, sociologists are typically interested in ‘gender’, or the socially constructed and mediated meanings attached to maleness and femaleness. This course begins from the assumption that “gender is not a property of the individual, but the product of ongoing, multilevel processes of social construction and reconstruction” (Nelson, 2010: 66). In this class students will be introduced to gender at the sociocultural, individual, institutional, interactional, and global levels. Utilizing sociological research and theory, we will consider various processes and players that shape and reshape gender within and across these levels, and what this means for men and women’s day to day lives.

This course combines lectures with facilitated classroom discussion and informal small group work. Students will be assessed based on readings, lecture and video material, and class participation content, so you will benefit from attending all classes with assigned readings complete and a participatory attitude.

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

- To demonstrate some of the ways that sociologists think about and research gender.
- To introduce key concepts and theories in the sociology of gender relations and provide ongoing opportunities to apply them to examples in the social environment.

- To offer tools to recognize and analyse gender stratification and begin to consider issues of diversity.
- To encourage students to critically examine and evaluate the impact of gender in their own lives, including why and how they might embrace, resist and/or alter gender and sexuality norms.

REQUIRED TEXT

ASSIGNMENTS AND EVALUATION

Quiz #1	30%	July 12
Quiz #2	35%	July 19
Final Exam	35%	July 26 (2:00 p.m.)

Exams: The quizzes and final exams include multiple choice, true/false, short answer, matching, and/or essay questions. The quizzes will cover only new material up until the test date, although major concepts will flow throughout the course and could appear on more than one test. The final will be cumulative. Material will be drawn from readings, lectures, guest speakers, class discussions, and films. Study ideas and more information regarding the content of the tests will be provided in class.

All components of this course must be completed in order to receive a passing grade.

Grading System:

A+ (95-100); A (90-94); A- (85-89); B+ (80-84); B (75-79); B- (70-74);
C+ (67-69); C (63-66); C- (60-62); D+ (55-59); D (50-54); F (0-49)

The grades for a course component may be scaled to maintain equity among sections and to conform to departmental norms.

Deferrals:

If at all possible, you must provide advance notice to the instructor if you are unable to take a test on time. All requests for deferral of a course component due to health reasons must be accompanied by written documentation as outlined in the University Calendar and should be obtained while the student has the physical or emotional problem rather than after recovery. Deferrals will be allowed in the following circumstances: illness, domestic affliction, or religious conviction. Travel arrangements and misreading of the syllabus are not valid reasons for requesting a deferred exam. Deferred exams will not be granted if it is determined that just cause is not shown by the student.

If you have missed a test for a legitimate reason, the instructor can require you to write a “makeup” test as close in time to the original test as possible or can choose to transfer the percentage weight to another course component. If the instructor schedules a “make up” test for you, its date and location will be at the convenience of the Sociology Department.

Please note that requests to defer a final examination go through the Undergraduate Programs Office (UPO) and must be processed by the deadlines that are established in the U of C Calendar. You can find the forms you need online:

Deferred Final Exam Application:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/files/registrar/deferredform.pdf>

You must submit this deferral form to the Social Sciences Associate Dean (Students) through the UPO office: Undergraduate Programs Office, 4th floor, MacEwan Student Centre. Only the Associate Dean approves requests for deferrals which extend beyond the end of a term. Instructors are not involved in such decisions. To make an appointment with the Associate Dean, phone (403) 220-8155.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Ethics Research:

Students are advised that any research with human subjects – including any interviewing (even with friends or family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation – must have the approval of the Departmental Ethics Committee. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subjects research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.

Academic Misconduct:

Plagiarism, cheating and other academic misconduct are regarded as serious academic offences. Students are advised to consult the University Calendar, which presents a Statement of Intellectual Honesty and definitions and penalties associated with cheating, plagiarism, and other academic misconduct.

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) legislation disallows the practice of having students retrieve assignments from a public place, e.g. outside an instructor’s office or the Department main office. Term assignments must be returned to the students individually, during class, or during the instructor’s office hours. If a student is unable to pick up his/her assignment s/he may provide the instructor with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be used for the return of the assignment.

Emergency Evacuations:

In the case of fire or other emergency evacuation of this class/lab, please proceed to the assembly point by the Food Court in the Social Sciences Building.

Safewalk:

The University of Calgary provides a “safe walk” service to any location on Campus, including the LRT, parking lots, bus zones, and campus housing. For Campus Security/Safewalk call 220-5333. Campus Security can also be contacted from any of the “Help” phones located around Campus.

Academic Accommodation:

Students with a disability, who require academic accommodation, need to register with the Disability Resource Centre (MC 295, telephone 220-8237). Academic accommodation letters need to be provided to course instructors no later than four (4) days after the first day class. It is the student’s responsibility to register with the Disability Resource Centre and to request academic accommodation, if required.

Handing in Papers Outside of Class, Return of Final Papers, and Release of Final Grades

1. When students are unable to submit papers at class, they should make arrangements to hand in their papers directly to the instructor or teaching assistant rather than at the Sociology Department main office.
2. Final papers will not be returned through the Sociology Department main office. The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) legislation disallows the practice of having students retrieve assignments from a public place, (i.e., outside an instructor’s office, the department office, etc.). Students who want their final papers returned by mail must attach a stamped, self-addressed envelope with the paper. Otherwise final papers will only be available for pick-up during the instructor’s office hours at the end of this term or the beginning of the next term.
3. Final grades are not posted by the Sociology department. They are only available online.
