Course Description

Course Calendar Statement

An introduction to sociological problems regarding the origin, impact and definition of law, dispute resolution, and the relationship between law and social change.

Course Description

Law is a social phenomenon that is both shaped by, and shapes, the society in which it operates. The course examines a variety of classical, modern and post-modern theoretical perspectives to investigate substantive issues that pertain to the role of law in reproducing particular social orders. Students will examine law from a sociological perspective and consider the historical creation of law as it emerged out of specific sets of power and knowledge relations.

Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes

Students will understand and demonstrate:

1. Knowledge of the classical and contemporary theoretical arguments about the nature and role of law in society.

2. The capacity to evaluate,
 - a. socio-legal arguments; and
 - b. the major strengths and weaknesses of arguments about the nature and role of law in society, and
3. the ability to evaluate socio-legal claims and conduct independent analysis of law-society relations.

Assessment Information

Guidelines for Assessments

The main Sociology Department office does not deal with any course-related matters. Please speak directly to your instructor.

Assessment of Writing

Writing skills are not exclusive to English courses and cross all disciplines. The University supports the belief that throughout their University careers, students should be taught how to write well so that when they graduate their writing abilities will be far above the minimal standards required at entrance. Consistent with this belief, students are expected to do a substantial amount of writing in their University courses and, where appropriate, members of faculty can and should use writing and the grading thereof as a factor in the evaluation of student work. The services provided by the Writing Support, part of the Student Success Centre, can be accessed by all undergraduate and graduate students who feel they require further assistance. In this course, your writing will be assessed as part of your grade in all case analysis assignments and examinations.

Assessments

Student Profile

Assessment information is posted on D2L.

Case Studies

One of the best ways for students to understand content is by looking at case study problems – examining case studies allows students to review and analyze issues and apply the concepts from the course in a way that facilitates deep learning.

The case studies will be released on D2L as per the lecture schedule. Please review the detailed instructions on case studies posted on D2L. The case studies must be handed in (hard copy) by the end of class on the due date.

Students may request regrades within 14 days of the assessment being returned to the class by submitting the case and a note detailing the grading concern to the instructor.

Carefully read the Course Outline and schedule for assessment due dates. Failure to comply with the stated dates/terms will result in a penalty of 20% per day late, including weekends and holidays, unless a valid exception has been made by the instructor prior to the due date.

Midterm Examination

The midterm examination will be in person and is worth 30% of your final grade. The examination is cumulative of all work covered in the course prior to the date of the examination. The examination is 75 minutes in duration (scheduled during class time – see Course Schedule for date), closed-book and comprised of multiple choice and true/false, short answer and cases study questions from readings, lectures and other course materials. Students will be allowed one single-sided, 8 ½" x 11" reference sheet (may be handwritten or word processed) for the examination.

Final Examination

The final examination will be in person and is worth 35% of your final grade. The examination is cumulative of all work covered in the course. It is closed-book, and comprised of multiple choice and true/false, short answer and cases study questions from readings, lectures and other course materials. Students will be allowed one double-sided, 8 ½" x 11" reference sheet (may be handwritten or word processed) for the examination.

The day and time of the final examination is scheduled by the Registrar and will be announced once scheduled. Feedback from the course assessment supports your preparation for the final examination. The final examination is scheduled for two hours.

Grading Scale

Letter grades will be assigned and submitted to the registrar based on the following scale:

Grade	Percent range	Grade Point Value	Description

Deferred Term Work Form: Deferral of term work past the end of a term requires a form to be filled out by the student and submitted, along with any supporting documentation, to the instructor. The form is available at: https://live-ucalgary.ucalgary.ca/sites/default/files/teams/14/P22_deferral-of-term-work_lapseGrade.pdf

Once an extension date has been agreed between instructor and student, the instructor will email the form to the Faculty of Arts Program Information Centre (ascarts@ucalgary.ca) for approval by the Associate Dean.

Deferral of a Final Examination

Deferral of a final examination can be granted for reasons of illness, domestic affliction, and unforeseen circumstances, as well as to those with three (3) final exams scheduled within a 24-hour period. Deferred final exams will not be granted to those who sit the exam, who have made travel arrangements that conflict with their exam, or who have misread the examination timetable. The decision to allow a deferred final exam rests not with the instructor but with Enrolment Services. Instructors should, however, be notified if you will be absent during the examination. The Application for Deferred Final Exam, deadlines, requirements and submission instructions can be found on the Enrolment Services website at <https://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/exams/deferred-exams>.
