COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course will focus on contemporary social theorizing, with an emphasis on how social researchers theorize about such issues as power, agency, social structure, social in/equalities, and revolution. The work of such theorists as Bourdieu, Gramsci, Dubois, El Saadawi, Giddens and Freire will be examined. The discussions and the theoretical perspectives –both from the North and the Global South- provide diverse ways in which to analyze the working of the structures of in/equalities that characterize post-colonial societies. We will also discuss the merits of a more integrated sociological theorizing. By the end of the course students will be able to effectively integrate sociological theory and concepts within the contexts of concrete empirical issues and substantiate arguments by locating them within a school/s of sociological theory.

The class format is primarily organized around lectures and discussions of the assigned readings. As well there will, on occasions, be DVD/video documentaries and guest speakers.

The instructor may make some changes to the content, format and/or time of the course.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND STUDENT EVALUATION:

The final grade for this course will be based two (2) mid-term exams, a final exam, a term paper outline, a major term paper, and invited lectures.

Examinations

Two (2) mid-term examinations: the first will be held in class on October 9th and the second on October 30th.

The final exam will be held in class on Thursday December 6th.

These exams questions are based on the required readings, lecture note, documentaries we watch in class, and invited lectures. These exams are not cumulative and will consist of short answer questions, multiple choice questions and short-essay questions.

Term Paper Outline

A term paper outline of one (1) double-spaced page (12 font, Times New Roman), not including the bibliography, is due on November 8th. The term paper outline identifies the research topic you select for the major term paper, your main argument, your research questions, and how you plan to conduct your research. It also includes a bibliography (a list of 4-6 sources you plan to use). The sources may include journal articles, book chapters, one (1) internet source or one (1) film/documentary. The bibliography incorporates two (2) assigned readings. More than one chapter from the same book count as one chapter.

Major Term Paper

The paper will be between six and eight pages (12 font, Times New Roman), not including the bibliography and the title page, and is due on Monday, December 10th. This paper will analyze/critique a topic that you find interesting, provoking or problematical. You may, for example, choose to focus on how one or several theorists discussed in the course approach a central concept such as power, agency, structure, revolution, or compare how two theorists approach questions of conflict, equity, democracy, or freedom. Another possible topic might be viewing the utility of contemporary sociological thought for social order or social change by examining the relevance of the work of one or several authors for a current international event or for other issues such as work or education.

Your paper needs to include:

- 1. A Title Page: Consists of your name and student number, the topic's title, the course's title and number, and the instructor's name.
- 2. An Introduction: Outlines the overview/summary of the main themes, issues and objectives discussed in the paper.
- 3. Analysis: Analyzes the main concepts, themes and issues. Incorporates the relevant literature review. You need to be analytical (not only describing concepts and themes, but explaining why and how they occur).
- 4. A Conclusion: Summarizes the topic discussed and the findings of your research.
- 5. A Bibliography: A list of the sources used in the paper (6-8 sources). The sources may include journal articles, book chapters, two (2) internet sources or one (1) film/documentary. The bibliography incorporates three to four (3-4) sources from the course's materials (at least 2 articles). More than one chapter from the same book count as one chapter.

Referencing: Paper should consist of proper referencing in the body of the paper, as well as in the bibliography section at the end of the paper. You may choose to use the style of the American Psychological Association (APA) below:

An example of a style you may wish to use in the body of your paper is the following:

Example: Amin (1976) found that social structures are shaped by capitalism and unequal development.

Examples of a style you may wish to use in the bibliography section at the end of the paper:

Examples:

1. Kivisto, P. (2008). Social Theory: Roots and Branches. Toronto: Oxford University Press.
2. Durkheim, E. (1972). The Field of Sociology. In A. Giddens (Ed.), Emile Durkheim: Selected writings (pp. 51-68). Cambridge: Cambridge University Press.

More discussion and details on the paper will occur in class.

If an extension has not been granted the late penalty for all assignments is a deduction of 10%, from the mark you earn on your assignment, per day if it is late.

Ethics Research: Students are advised that any research with human subjects--including any interviewing (even with friends and family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation--must have the approval of the Departmental Ethics Committee. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subjects research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.

Hand in hard copies of your papers. The instructor will not accept e-copies of your papers.

It is a student's responsibility to register with the Disability Resource Centre and to request academic accommodation, if required.

Deferrals:

If at all possible you must provide advance notice to the instructor if you are unable to take a test or pass in an assignment or essay on time. All requests for deferral of a course component due to health reasons must be accompanied by written documentation as outlined in the University Calendar and should be obtained while the student has the physical or emotional problem rather than after recovery. Deferrals will be allowed in the following circumstances: illness, domestic affliction or religious conviction. Travel arrangements and misreading of the syllabus are not valid reasons for requesting a deferral. Deferrals will not be granted if it is determined that just cause is not shown by the student.

If you have missed a test for a legitimate reason, the instructor can require you to write a "make up" test as close in time to the original test as possible or can choose to transfer the percentage weight to another course component. If the instructor schedules a "make up" test for you, its date and location will be at the convenience of the Department of Sociology.

Deferred Final Exam Form:

Please note that requests to defer a Registrar-scheduled final exam are dealt with through the Registrar's Office. Further information about deadlines, and where paperwork should be taken, is available on the form, which can be found at:

Handing in papers outside of class, return of final papers, and release of final grades:
