COURSE SCOPE AND OBJECTIVES

This course is organized around the theme of 'social problems and social issues in sport'. It begins by defining what is meant by the 'sociology of sport' and by examining why sport is sociologically significant. It then looks at a number of theoretical approaches to the study of sport. The first two theories discussed -- structural functionalism and conflict theory -- are well-established sociological approaches. Each, in different ways, sees sport as a reflection of social institutions and social practices. The third approach, which can broadly be described as a form of critical theory, is introduced to show how sport can be understood as a phenomenon which is both a reflection of social structures, processes and norms, but also an arena in which values, ideologies, and meanings are constantly being negotiated, challenged and changed. The substantive topics dealt with in the course include gender/body/sexuality, fitness/health, violence/law/social control, risk/pain/injury, sport/media, and sport/globalization. However, time permitting, reference will also be made to numerous other sports-related issues such as political economy, race and ethnicity, Olympism, and children and sport. A sociological examination of these issues is intended to encourage students to think critically about the place and role of sport in society.

REQUIRED READING

The course is organized around two core texts:

Jay Coakley and Peter Donnelly (2009). Sports in Society: Issues and Controversies. New York: McGraw-Hill (Second Edition). Coakley's originally American book has for some time been one of the most popular introductory texts on the North American market. It appeals to students because, in addition to being sociologically rigorous and covering a wide range of important topics, it is also written in a lively and accessible style. This is a version of the Coakley book, adapted for Canadian readers by Peter Donnelly at the University of Toronto. It is now in its second edition.

Kevin Young (2012). Sport, Violence and Society. Abingdon, UK: Routledge. This new publication by the instructor complements Coakley & Donnelly by taking an in-depth look at what we mean by 'sports violence'. Adopting a panoramic and global perspective, the book shows how apparently disparate articulations of 'sports-related violence' are sociologically connected.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES (posted by the professor)

1. A careful and punctual reading of the required material.
2. Regular attendance at lectures. (The University of Calgary has no policy of mandatory attendance, but attendance is strongly recommended.)
3. Advance notice to the professor or the Department of Sociology main office (403-220-6501) if unable to comply with the schedule of exams. Students who do not provide this advance notice may not be allowed to retake exams. Also see note on "Academic Accommodation" and "Deferrals" below.
4. Students who are having difficulty with the course are advised to contact the instructor/TA immediately to discuss the situation.
5. Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with changes (additions, deletions, shifts) to this outline made in class.

6. Keep this outline. It will be your course reference throughout the term. Most of the questions students ask are answered on it. Once again, no hard copies will be provided.

EXAMINATIONS & GRADING SYSTEM

Three in-class exams, dividing the course into three roughly equal parts, have been scheduled. They are based entirely on objective/multiple-choice questions. They are not cumulative. The respective dates and values of the exams, and the material to be tested in each, are as follows:

1. EXAM #1 – Thursday February 9, 2012 (30%) -- SECTION I examined.
2. EXAM #2 – Thursday March 15, 2012 (30%) -- SECTION II examined
3. EXAM #3 – TBA (40%) -- SECTION III examined.

GRADING SCALE

Please be aware that the following approximate grading scale may change from test to test:

A- (80-84) A (85-94) A+ (95>)
 B- (70-73) B (74-76) B+ (77-79)
 C- (60-63) C (64-66) C+ (67-69)
 D (50-54) D+ (55-59)
 F (<49)

Letter grades assigned at the conclusion of the course will be determined by a grading schema and letter scale that will be (i) discussed in class, (ii) posted on Blackboard, and (iii) applied in precisely the same way to everyone. Grade 'cut-offs' will be honoured in every case, including those where students miss the next letter grade by 0.1%. This is non-negotiable and, in the interests of fairness to everyone, no exceptions will be made.

RELEASE OF FINAL GRADES

Final grades are not posted by the Sociology department. They are only available online.

LECTURE SCHEDULE AND READING ASSIGNMENTS

This is designed to be a flexible schedule. When and how certain topics are covered in class may change, and we will complete the following only if time allows. Students are strongly advised to attend class to keep informed of any changes that may occur. Video material, which may include content not identified below, will be used to complement lectures where relevant and available, and may be examined.

A Plea for the Environment: This more-colourful-than-normal course outline marks the end of the hard copy hand-out era. While intended to illustrate course content, it should not waste resources (i.e., ink). Please do not print in colour, and print only once. Thank you, and welcome to Soci. 399!

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES (posted by the University)

Emergency Evacuations: In the case of fire or other emergency evacuation of this classroom/lab, please proceed to the assembly point by [check link to find assembly point for your building: <http://www.ucalgary.ca/emergencyplan/node/75>]

Deferrals: If possible, you must provide advance notice to the instructor if you are unable to take a test or submit an assignment or essay on time. All requests for deferral of a course component due to health reasons must be accompanied by written documentation as outlined in the University Calendar and should be obtained while the student has the physical or emotional problem rather than after recovery. Deferrals will be allowed in the following circumstances: illness, domestic affliction or religious conviction. Travel arrangements and misreading of the syllabus are not valid reasons for requesting a deferral. Deferrals will not be granted if it is determined that just cause is not shown by the student.

If you have missed a test for a legitimate reason, the instructor can require you to write a “make up” test as close in time to the original test as possible or can choose to transfer the percentage weight to another course component. If the instructor schedules a “make up” test for you, its date and location will be at the convenience of the Department of Sociology.

Please note that requests to defer a final examination or to defer term work past the end of a term go through the Undergraduate Programs Office (UPO) and must be processed by the deadlines that are established in the UofC Calendar. You can find the forms you need online:

Deferred Final Exam Application:

Deferred Term Work Form:

<http://www.ucalgary.ca/registrar/files/registrar/defTW.pdf>

You must submit these deferral forms to the Faculty of Arts Associate Dean (Students) through the UPO office: Undergraduate Programs Office, 4th Floor, MacEwan Student Centre. Only the Associate Dean approves requests for deferrals which extend beyond the end of a term. Instructors are not involved in such decisions. To make an appointment with the Associate Dean, phone (403) 220-8155.

Ethics Research: Students are advised that any research with human subjects -- including any interviewing (even with friends and family), opinion polling, or unobtrusive observation -- must have the approval of the Departmental Ethics Committee. In completing course requirements, students must not undertake any human subjects research without discussing their plans with the instructor, to determine if ethics approval is required.

Academic Misconduct: Plagiarism, cheating and other academic misconduct are regarded as serious academic offences. Students are advised to consult the University Calendar which presents a Statement of Intellectual Honesty and definitions and penalties associated with cheating, plagiarism, and other academic misconduct.

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) legislation disallows the practice of having students retrieve assignments from a public place, e.g., outside an instructor's office or the Department main office. Written assignments must be returned to students individually, during class, or during the instructor's office hours; if a student is unable to pick up her/his assignment s/he may provide the instructor with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to be used for the return of the assignment.

Safewalk: The University of Calgary provides a "safe walk" service to any location on Campus, including the LRT, parking lots, bus zones, and campus housing. For Campus Security/Safewalk call 220-5333. Campus Security can also be contacted from any of the "Help" phones located around Campus.

Academic Accommodation: Students with a disability, who require academic accommodation, need to register with the Disability Resource Centre (MC 295, phone 220-8237). Academic accommodation letters need to be provided to course instructors no later than fourteen (14) days after the first day of class. It is a student's responsibility to register with the Disability Resource Centre and to request academic accommodation, if required.

Handing in papers outside of class, return of final papers, and release of final grades:

1. When students are unable to submit papers in class, they should make arrangements to hand in their papers directly to the instructor or teaching assistant. Papers will not be accepted in the main Sociology Department office.
2. Final papers will not be returned through the main Sociology Department office. The Freedom of Information and Privacy (FOIP) legislation disallows the practice of having students retrieve assignments from a public place (i.e. outside an instructor's office, the department office etc.) Students who want their final papers returned by mail must attach a stamped, self-addressed envelope with the paper. Otherwise final papers will be available for pick-up only during the instructor's office hours at the end of this term or at the beginning of the next term.
3. Final grades are not posted by the Sociology Department. They are available only online.

Failing a test and failing the course: In order to pass the course a student does not have to record a passing grade on all of the assignments.
